TRIES IN VAIN TO RATTLE ORCHARD

Man Who Has Murdered His Score is Too Much for the Trickeries of Lawyer Richardson

SPECULATION AS TO ADAMS' TESTIMONY

Boise, Idaho, June 11.—Continuing its cross examination of Harry Orchard today, the defense in the case of William D. Haywood, attacked the testimony of the witness as to the dynamiting of Fred Bradley, of San Francisco, and besides endeavoring to show discrepancies and improbabilities in it, sought to make it appear that it had been in part inspired by Detective McParland.

There was first an effort to show that Orchard had never seen nor heard of the Japanese servant who cleaned the porch at the Linforth flats the morning Bradley was blown up until McParland told Orchard about him. Orchard denied this, and swore that he saw the Japanese and that he had to wait for the Japanese to leave the porch before he placed the bomb.

Then the defense endeavored to discredit the story of the purchase of dynamite from the Judson Powder company and the entire claim that a bomb was used by showing the walls of the Linforth building were blown outward and that Bradley had been blown into the street. Attorney Richardson demanded that the witness explain how the explosion of a bomb had had these effects. Orchard said he could not explain the matter, but expressed the opinion that Bradley was standing sideways to the bomb and that the explosion followed the line of least resistance and carried him into the street.

At the request of the defense, Orchard stood before the jury and drew a diagram of the entrance to the Linforth flats.

By noon today Orchard, under cross-examination, had described in detail the explosion at the Bradley residence in San Francisco and was giving particulars of the attempts in Denver to assassinate Governor Peabody and Supreme Judge Gabbert, of Colorado, in December, 1904.

SPECULATE AS TO ADAMS.

Orchard's Pal Is Sulky and May Not Go on the Stand.

Boise, Idaho, June 11.—There is much speculation as to what Steve Adams will say when placed on the stand as a witness for the state against William D. Haywood.

Orchard has said that Adams was his partner in many of his most desperate undertakings, such as the blowing up of the Independence depot. Adams, who came to Boise yesterday from Shoshone county, where he is awaiting trial for murder, is said to be in a sullen mood and not likely to answer any of the questions.

It is known that his repudiated confession is in the hands of counsel for the prosecution of Haywood, but it is doubtful if this confession can be brought within the cognizance of the jury unless Adams himself consents.

Adams went so far after making the confession as to travel to Colorado with General Bulkeley Wells and report has it that under the direction of Adams, evidences were discovered that cleared up the mysteries of several disappearances.

Skeletons Were Found.

Skeletons of non-union miners who were believed to have been killed, but the proof of whose death had never been found, were discovered.

The most startling part of Adams' alleged confession is the murder of Arthur Collins, manager of the Smuggler-Union mine, near Telluride, Col.

Harry Orchard goes on for his fourth day of cross examination this

DISCOUNT TALES OF CONSPIRACY OF JAPANESE

Influential Japs in the Northwest Say Stories Are Improbable.

Seattle, Wash., June 11.—Reports from Washington that a combination exists between the Japanese of the northwest and the progressive party at home are discredited here by both the Japanese consul, S. Hishimidzu, and Brigadier General O. E. Wood, who is here with the Kuroki party. The former declared the report to be absurd and without any foundation.

"Mr. Yamaoka," the consul declared, "has always been a member of the liberal party, and there is no reason why he should enter into any combination with the progressives. Reports have entirely misrepresented the conference at Washington and can do no good."

General Wood laughs at the idea of any combination trying to bring on war and says that the trouble is due to the agitation of several dissatisfied persons who thought they saw an opportunity to make some noise; that Japan does not want to go to war with the United States.

C. T. Taka Hashi, who represented the Seattle-Japanese society at Washington, said:

"The whole question is too absurd for comment. I can speak unqualifiedly on behalf of the business men and merchants of the Japanese race. War is not wanted and the trouble is due to the agitation of a small party who would like to disturb the high order of friendship that exists between the United States and Japan."

BARK M'CUTCHEON IS SURE THE SAUCY CUT-UP

Stole a Passenger Train, Took Short Ride on It, Then Came Back.

Bellingham, Wash., June 11.—The Great Northern Seattle-Bellingham local train was last night stolen from the depot where it was left for a few minutes while the crew went to lunch, by Barkley McCutcheon, a well known character in this town. Jumping into the cab McCutcheon threw open the throttle and away the train shot, going north at terrific speed. The bell was ringing and the whistle blowing continually. The train crew rushed for a "speeder" and followed until it was discovered that the man at the valve had reversed the train and was returning south. He had the train under full speed and the pursuing crew were barely able to get off the track in time to avoid being run down. McCutcheon later stopped the train and was arrested.

COMPROMISE ON LIQUOR LICENSE MEASURE EXPECTED

Two Reports Will Be Made on Henry Ordinance in Council.

There is a strong probability that when the city council meets tonight two reports will be made on the Henry high saloon license ordinance and that as a compromise measure the fee will be fixed at $150 which will not meet strong opposition from the brewery and saloon interests. This is, of course, based upon the guesses of members of the council who have figured on the proposition.

It had been the intention of the democratic members to follow the first Henry ordinance with one at the lower figure and he anticipated it by putting in a copy of his original bill. Two members of the finance committee, to which it was referred are in favor of $250 and three are committed to $150 so it is said.

To Elect Trustee.

The selection of a school trustee to succeed Dr. W. O. Gross, treasurer of the board, is also down for tonight. Anselm Fuelber, editor of the Staats Zietung, is a receptive candidate, and has done a little hustling for the place. Dr. Gross thinks he can succeed himself and William S. O'Rourke is said to represent an entirely new element in the fight.

The council is democratic but Dr. Gross thinks he can carry the republican votes and get enough democrats to secure his election. Other business before the council will be the consideration of the additional track across Harrison street for the Nickel Plate and the question of purchasing ground around Delta Lake for a park.

WILL NOT GO TO JAMESTOWN.

Chicago, June 11.—The first regiment of infantry, Illinois national guard, of Chicago, which has been planning a trip to the Jamestown exposition the first week in July, has announced that the proposed encampment has been abandoned.

SERIOUS CONDITION IN FRENCH WINE DISTRICTS

Revolutionary Aspects Develop—Troops Refuse to Do Duty.

Montpellier, France, June 11.—After the announcement of the resignation of the municipal council here last evening, in accordance with the Wine growers' program, the arrest of a youth for carrying a banner bearing the inscription, "March on Paris—long live the revolution," led to serious disorders. Hussars were called out and charged the people repeatedly. Several persons were injured and calm was only restored by the release of the prisoner.

Marcelin Albert, the leader of the movement, has issued a circular to all the committee inviting them to take united action, in obedience to the recommendation of Argelliер's commitee and to employ only peaceful, lawful means, adding:

"No disorders or violence. The hour has not yet come. We still hope that it will never come."

SOLDIERS ALMOST IN REVOLT.

Narbonne, France, June 11.—The discontent caused among the men of the One Hundredth regiment of infantry by their confinement to barracks for the last five Sundays on account of the wine growers' manifestations, was brought to a head last night by a dispute between the privates and non-commissioned officers, who tried to pul ldown men from a wall, whence they were cheering passing trains loaded with wine growers going to Montpellier.

The soldiers informed their colonel they absolutely refused to march against their friends and relations. The colonel succeeded in temporarily calming the men by promising to investigate the charges of brutality brought against the sergeants, but the military authorities consider that the spirit of the troops is bad, all the soldiers being in sympathy with the movement of the wine growers.

FIERCE STORM STRIKES A KENTUCKY TOWN; MUCH DAMAGE

Cattlettsburg Suffers a Heavy Loss—Town in Darkness.

Catlettsburg, Ky., June 11.—This city was in total darkness last night and there is scarcely a whole roof, skylight or window in town. A number of houses were completely unroofed, and one dwelling house was blown from its foundation by the most terrific storm in the history of this section. The streets are strewn with all sorts of debris, and wires of the telephone and telegraph companies are a tangled mass. The electric light plant was smashed by the falling of the stacks and will be disabled for several days. No casualties have been reported. The steamer Cando turned over on its side and went down the river. The Emma Marie went to her assistance, but could not land her. She was valued at $8,000. The roof was blown from the county court house, the M. E. church, the Meek Printing company's building and a number of other buildings.

SEVERE STORM IN OHIO.

Ironton, O., June 11.—A violent storm swept over this section early today. There was heavy rain, wind and hail at South Point, the windows of all houses being broken and roofs blown off. Hail fell as large as eggs. The damage to crops was very large.

DAMAGE AT SPRINGFIELD.

Springfield, Ohio, June 11.—Following the worst storm that has visited this city since the tornado several years ago, Mill run, an ordinarily quiet stream that runs through the city, broke loose about midnight and caused several thousand dollars of damage. The Big Four and the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad yards were several feet under water and the torrent badly damaged the tracks.

DR. GROSS WILL RESPOND.

Is to Speak at Meeting of Indiana Pharmacists.

Evansville, Ind., June 11.—The 26th annual convention of the Indiana Pharmaceutical association will be held June 18, 19 and 20. The program for the convention has been completed. It will be called to order at 10 a. m., June 18, by the state president, Bruno Knoefel, of New Albany, Ind., and Mayor Boehne will welcome the delegates in an address. The response will be made by Dr. W. O. Gross, of Fort Wayne.

GREEN BUG IN OHIO.

Cincinnati, O., June 11.—A Times-Star special from Circleville, O., says: The green bug of Kansas is at work in this vicinity, having already destroyed many oat fields. Stretches of twenty miles have already been destroyed and fields of twenty acres have been destroyed within a week. The bug is apparently moving toward the southeast.

INDIANA WRITER IS DESPONDENT AND WOULD DIE

Test Dalton Cuts Throat at Greenwich England—May Recover.

Greenwich, England, June 11.—Charles Dalton, an American writer, son of N. F. Dalton, of Indianapolis, attempted to cut his throat here today with a razor, owing to despondency due to financial troubles. He was taken to a hospital and probably will recover.

HIS CAREER IN INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 11.—Charles Test Dalton is the son of Nathan F. Dalton, a lumber merchant of this city. He has been abroad a little more than a year, having been a resident of New York for the two years preceding his journey abroad. He is little more than thirty years of age and though his home has been in Indianapolis for a number of years, he was born in Vincennes, Ind., where his boyhood was spent.

In this city he was known as a literary worker, and for a time was connected with the Indianapolis Sentinel and the Indianapolis Journal. He has rone some magazine work and is the author of "The Role of the Unconquered," a novel of romantic character. This he published under the name of Test Dalton. His parents live at 237 East Pratt street.

LEGACY THE CAUSE OF SUICIDE AND MURDER

Cincinnati Couple Who Had Windfall Could Not Enjoy It.

Cincinnati, O., June 11.—The inheritance of $4,500 resulting in quarrels and a murder and suicide, were discovered in an apartment on Burns alley today. The dead body of Mrs. Edward Baumgartner and the unconscious form of her husband, were found, the woman with a bullet wound in the left temple and the right temple of the husband showing a similar wound. The husband died a few hours later.

Whether the husband or wife did the shooting is unknown. From his father, Baumgartner recently inherited a fourth interest in an estate of $18,000 since which time he and his wife have quarreled repeatedly and it is supposed that the crime was committed during one of their quarrels over the disposition of the money.

WIDOW DEMANDS $10,000 FOR DEATH OF HER HUSBAND

Mrs. Bender Charges Locomotive Was Defective —The Courts.

Nancy Bender, as administratrix of the estate of William C. Bender, has brought suit against the Pennsylvania company and P. J. Scheid to recover $10,000 for the death of her husband who was killed by the explosion of a locomotive near Coesse, on January 30 of this year.

She alleges that she brings the suit for the estate of Mabel I., aged 17, Adeline, 15, Daniel, 11, Gladys, 7, and Virginia, 4, all children of the deceased. It is charged in the complaint that the company maintains shops and yards here for the inspection and repair of locomotives and that it is the duty of the employes to see that all machinery and rolling stock is in perfect order before allowing it to go out upon the road. She states that the engine had been weakened by long service and improper use, that the crown sheet was imperfectly constructed and that the explosion was due to the failure of the company to have the locomotive in reasonably good repair when it was placed in his charge. Ballou and Hoffman are her attorneys.

Case is Dismissed.

The case against Homer Parish, brought here from Adams county about four years ago on a change of venue, has been dismissed in the circuit court.

.... HAD FRIGHTFUL FALL.

Lineman Frank Miller Badly Injured at —— Rockfield.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Rockfield, Ind., June 11.—Frank Miller, a member of Foreman Southworth's gang of linemen engaged in working on the Lafayette extension of the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction company's interurban railroad, was seriously, perhaps fatally, injured in a fall here yesterday. Miller had just reached the top of the big derrick pole, a height of about forty feet, when it gave way and fell, carrying Miller with it. Strapped to the pole as he was, it was impossible for him to free himself. When his fellow workmen reached him, Miller was unconscious. It is feared he is hurt internally.

ELEVEN NAVAL MEN BELIEVED DROWNED

An Officer, Five Middies and Five Seamen from Battleship Minnesota Lost Off Norfolk

SMALL LAUNCH THOUGHT TO HAVE SUNK

Norfolk, Va., June 11.—Five midshipmen and an officer who came ashore last night in a small boat from the United States battleship Minnesota, lying in Hampton Roads, together with five seamen, are missing.

The officer and midshipmen in the party were:

Lieutenant Randall, of the United States marine corps, and Midshipmen Field, Ulrich, Holden and Stevenson, of the Minnesota, and Midshipman Holcomb, of the battleship Connecticut.

The Minnesota's launch is known to have left Discovery landing at the exposition grounds shortly after 12 o'clock last night and the theory of the officers of the fleet now in the roads, is that the launch struck something and went down and that all were drowned.

TO WAGE RIGHTEOUS WAR ON WICKED TRUST

Government Preparing to Begin Assault on Umbrella Combine.

Philadelphia, June 11.—Acting on instructions from Washington, United States District Attorney Thompson will tomorrow move against the so-called umbrella trust. It is alleged that there is a conspiracy among the makers of umbrella frames in restraint of trade for the purpose of fixing prices of the products of the factories. Mr. Thompson will present information in his possession to the federal grand jury and ask that bills of indictment be found.

While he will not divulge the names of the concerns against which he will probably proceed, he admits that bills will be framed against some of the prominent firms and corporations in the east. He declines to give the specific information on which he bases his intended prosecution.

DOCTOR SHOWS HOW TO ELECTROCUTE GERMS

New Method of Sterilization is Discovered by Chicago Man.

Chicago, June 11.—The bacillus will meet death by electrocution should a new method of sterilization, proclaimed yesterday by Dr. Carl H. Von Klein, come into general practice.

Two wires charged with positive and negative currents and a metallic bowl, preferably copper, are the weapons of death with which Dr. Von Klein slays the germs. With one of the wires applied to the outside of the vessel, the other resting in the fluid it contains, he claims swift and sure death by electrocution is meted out to the unwelcomed life therein.

"Sterilization by my new method," said Dr. Von Klein, "not only kills all the ordinary germs and bacilli, but it likewise kills the fermentive germ, and itself becomes a most wonderful preservative. I tried it on a bowl of milk last Thursday. Here it is Monday and that milk is as sweet and pure as possible."

Having satisfied himself of the effects of electricity on milk and water, Dr. Von Klein proposes trying it on fruits and vegetables. He also hopes to evolve a plan by which a copper mesh could be inserted in the chief water mains and then, by means of his positive and negative electric currents, sterilize every drop of water that passes through.

HIBERNIAN RIFLES WILL GO INTO CAMP AT ROME CITY

Military Company to Spend a Week There in August.

The Hibernian Rifles will go into camp at Rome City early in August and will spend a week at the resort. The date chosen is August 4 to 11, and intermingled with their seven days of recreation the young men of this crack military company will take part in a series of drills as well as target practice.

There will be forty in the party. A committee composed of Captain Errington, Lieutenant Shea, Lieutenant Conroy, Sergeant Danchy and Corporal Cran will go to Rome City within a few days to select grounds for the camp.

DRIVEN TO SUICIDE BY DEATH OF A WOMAN

Indiana Man Loved Woman Whose Jealous Husband Murdered Her

Detroit, Mich., June 11.—As a result, apparently, of brooding over the murder ten days ago of Mrs. David Walters by her husband, who was jealous, Clifford Kirkpatrick, a box-maker from Eaton, Ind., committed suicide at his boarding place here today. He left a letter to his father, James Kirkpatrick, in which he said:

"My only love was killed last Friday by her deserted husband. She was all I had in the world. I have nothing left to live for. I will be safe with my love by morning."

Mrs. Walters and her husband came from Mount Vernon, Ohio, and the husband-murderer, who is under arrest, says that it was his wife's intimacy with Kirkpatrick which drove him to following her here and stabbing her to death.

PRESIDENTIAL PARTY HOME.

Return to Washington from Trip to Jamestown.

Washington, June 11.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt and party, who attended the Georgia day ceremonies yesterday at the Jamestown exposition, arrived at the Washington navy yard at 7:30 a. m., on board the converted yacht Mayflower.

The vessel reached her dock just at 7:30 but the president and Mrs. Roosevelt did not land immediately. Shortly before 8 o'clock, however, they left the vessel and entering their carriage which was in waiting, were driven directly to the white house.

ISSUE AN ULTIMATUM.

Detroit Street Car Men Ready to Go on Strike.

Detroit, Mich., June 11.—At a mass meeting of the 2,300 members of the local street railway men's union today, the men voted to give the Detroit United railway forty-eight hours in which to either grant their recent demands for twenty-eight cents per hour or submit the question to arbitration. Failure to meet this demand by the company, it is said by leaders among the men today, will probably result in a strike.

TWO MEN HAUL CHURCH BELL AWAY AND TRY TO SELL IT

One Under Arrest and Warrant is Out for the Other.

Walter Mains, of Garrett, is in the county jail and Earl Thompson, of Huntertown, is being sought by the authorities on a charge of having carried away and offered for sale the bell that hung in the old Union church near Huntertown until the edifice was destroyed by fire several years ago. It had since lain in the church yard.

The bell was taken Sunday night and on Monday afternoon the two men took it to Garrett and offered it to the junk dealer and while they were trying to get a purchaser Marshal Shoudel placed them under arrest. The bell weighed 465 pounds and was conveyed from the church yard in a hand cart and then placed on a wagon and hauled to Garrett.

The regulators at Huntertown discovered the theft and notified the marshal to look out for the men. Affidavits were prepared against them by Prosecutor Dan B. Ninde and the matter was kept quiet as Thompson had not been apprehended.

GOT HIS WALLET.

Albert Dowey, of Aboit township, reported that while he was in a Harrison street saloon yesterday, his pocket was picked of a wallet containing $5.

MAY PUT ABE RUEF IN TO TURN ON SCHMITZ

This May Be Done if San Francisco Mayor Tries to Prove Character.

San Francisco, June 11.—The trial of Mayor Schmitz proceeded today and with reasonable cross examination it is expected that the defense will complete its case by evening.

Should Schmitz go on the stand to prove that his character is spotless, it may be necessary for the prosecution to play its trump card and call Abe Ruef to testify.

Reuf is all that is needed, it is said, to cinch the case against Schmitz, but there are other prosecutions to be considered and it might be considered poor strategy to spring the climax in the first act of this presentation of the local graft situation.

The grand jury intended to begin an investigation yesterday of the arrival of shipments of dynamite to San Francisco. The United railroads had blamed the car men and the car men in turn had blamed the United railroads. In view of the fact that the Schmitz trial is nearing completion, it is stated that no session of the grand jury will be held until the case against Schmitz shall have gone to the jury.

GOVERNOR NAMES A BUG EXPERT BY NEW LAW

B. W. Douglass, of Indianapolis, is Appointed State Entomologist.

Indianapolis, June 11.—Benjamin W. Douglass, of this city, has been appointed state entomologist by Governor Hanly, under the law of 1907, providing that the entomologist shall devote all of his time to this work. The salary is $1,500.

The governor announced the appointment also of George Nichols, of Anderson, as a member of the board for the Indiana Village of Epileptics. The term is four years. Mr. Nichols is a republican.

W. H. Shaffer, North Manchester, has been reappointed as a member of the state board of dental examiners. The term is two years.

Vice President T. F. Wentz, of the German-American National bank, is in Cleveland on a business trip.

EMPLOYERS TO TALK OF THE TRADE SCHOOLS

Notable Meeting of Manufacturers is in Progress in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, June 11.—The convention of men from national associations that are large employers of skilled labor, held its first business session today. The convention was called for the purpose of considering matters pertaining to the condition and additional development of trade schools.

The attendance is far greater than was anticipated under the call. In addition to the officials of employing associations many others interested in the industrial training of young men have come to aid in the organization of a permanent association for advancing interest in trade schools.

Those furthering the movement argue that the time has come when the country's industrial affairs demand more skilled workmen if the expansion of industries is not to be hindered and restricted. It is argued that the old apprenticeship system has become inadequate and it is denied that the movement has for its object the education of men who might be used as strike-breakers in time of labor disputes.

J. L. Ketcham representing the National Founders association, presided today. Addresses were delivered by Anthony Ittner, of St. Louis, representing the National Brickmakers' association; P. M. Kling, of McKees Rocks, Pa., and James W. Van Cleave, of St. Louis, president of the National Manufacturers' association.

Mr. Van Cleave thought a manual training department should be attached to every public school in the United States. Industrial high schools were also advocated.

The visitors this afternoon inspected the trade schools at the Winona Technical institute. The commencement exercises at the institute were witnessed. Two hundred young men were graduated.

BOTH CLAIM NOMINATION.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 11.—C. N. Haswell today claimed to have been nominated for governor of the new state of Oklahoma at Saturday's democratic primaries by a majority of 13,000 while Lee Cruce's managers said it would require the official count to determine the winner.

LYNCHING IN PROSPECT.

Bluefield, W. Va., June 11.—Lee Tabor, a railroader, resisting arrest, last night shot and killed Officer James Francisco, and shot Tom Hunt, another officer. Feeling is running high as a result of the shooting, and Tabor may be lynched.

TRIES IN VAIN TO RATTLE ORCHARD

morning. He shows not the slightest sign of fatigue. Today he will complete his story of the attempt to kill Fred Bradley, formerly manager and now president of the Bunker Hill mine, which was blown up by the striking miners in 1899. The prosecution attaches much importance to this part of Orchard's testimony.

Orchard will be on the stand under cross examination at least until the close of the afternoon session and it is possible that Mr. Richardson will not conclude until tomorrow.

Orchard Resumes Stand.

When Orchard resumed the stand at the opening of court today, Attorney Richardson continued to question the witness about the attempts he made on the life of Fred Bradley in San Francisco. Orchard said that he roomed near the Bradley home, being able to overlook it from his bedroom window. The confessing witness declared that he had bought some dynamite for a bomb before the attempt to poison Bradley with strychnine in the milk failed.

Orchard said that it was the Judson Powder company that he bought the explosive from. Asked about the appearance of the clerk who waited on him, Orchard said he was a youngish looking man.

In buying the powder Orchard was required to give his name. He could not remember what name it was—a fictitious one. As an excuse for buying the ten pounds of dynamite, Orchard told the clerk he wanted to blow out some stumps on his ranch.

Dispute as to Stumps.

"Don't you know there are no stumps within 150 miles of San Francisco?" demanded Richardson.

"I know that there are—I've seen them on the way to Caliente Springs."

Orchard gave as nearly as he could a description of the various places where he had lived while in San Francisco before moving to the Bradley neighborhood. He could not remember the names of the streets or the numbers of the houses.

Next Orchard told of a pleasure trip he had taken to Caliente Springs while waiting for Bradley to return from Alaska.

Orchard said it was after he had seen the milk delivered to the Bradleys' back door several mornings in succession that he conceived the idea of poisoning his victim rather than to employ a bomb.

Manufactured a Bomb.

With the failure of the milk plot, he went ahead and manufactured the bomb, first buying a piece of five inch lead pipe fourteen inches long. Orchard said he bought the pipe in a plumbing shop on Taylor street.

Richardson wanted to know if Detective McParland had attempted to trace the San Francisco locations for the witness.

"All I know is that he investigated the powder or dynamite purchase. He brought me a list of the sales of the Judson Powder company and asked me if I could pick out the name I had given. I picked out A. Debs as the one I thought I remembered."

"Don't you know there was but one ten pound sale of dynamite that whole year?"

"Mr. McParland showed me several."

"But all the others were in the name of a well known customer of the firm?"

"There were several names."

Heard of Suit Against Gas Company.

Orchard said he had heard from McParland about the suit of the owner of the apartments against the San Francisco Gas company after the explosion of the Bradley bomb.

On Orchard's confession, Detective McParland and Governor Gooding made affidavits for use by the gas company in moving for a new trial.

"Did you know the motion for a new trial based on these affidavits had been overruled by the court?"

"No, sir. I heard the judgment was stayed."

"But that was on appeal."

"I don't know about that."

Tells of Explosion.

Orchard said the morning he placed the bomb at the front door of the Bradley house, men were passing on their way to work. The lead bomb was inside a wooden box. Orchard took a downtown car and was out of ear shot before the explosion occurred.

From the examination of the place after the explosion don't you know that the walls were blown out instead of in?" asked Mr. Richardson.

"They were all shattered."

Orchard said that as Bradley opened the door he would be sideways to the bomb and the explosion would be more likely to blow him out than in.

Calmy Shows He Went About Murder.

The witness, with the same calmness that has marked his demeanor throughout, drew a diagram for the attorneys showing just where he had placed the bomb and where Bradley would be with the opening of the door. At the suggestion of Judge Wood, Orchard left the witness chair and walked over to the jury box, where he explained the diagram to the twelve men. He did not hesitate in supplying any detail demanded by Richardson.

Orchard said that it was from the newspapers that he learned Bradley had been blown into the street.

"Then you don't know positively that he was blown into the street?" asked Richardson.

"I did not see him go," said Orchard.

In reply to questions, Orchard said he went to the corner grocery a few days after the explosion to learn Bradley's condition.

"Why didn't you read the papers for that too?" Richardson wanted to know.

"Because I did not believe all I saw in the papers."

The grocer said the explosion was generally attributed to gas but he thought it was a bomb.

"I told him I did not think so at all," declared Orchard.

Orchard next told of returning to Denver after receiving more money from Pettibone. He disguised himself as a soldier and wore glasses.

Attempt to Slay Gabbert.

Orchard said it was while he was living with Steve Adams that he was detailed by Haywood to help Adams assassinate Judge Gabbert in Denver.

"Haywood said he wanted us to shoot Gabbert because he felt the use of dynamite would get everybody in trouble," said Orchard. His idea in continuing to kill was to get the ranch Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone had promised him.

"And you were ready to kill everybody in Colorado for an $800 ranch?" suggested Richardson.

"I don't know about that."

Orchard said he lurked about Judge Gabbert's for several days, hoping for a chance to shoot him.

"Why didn't you go up and ring the door bell and pump into him?" asked Richardson.

"Because I was too cowardly," said Orchard without a moment's hesitation.

"You never allowed anybody else to call you a coward, did you, in those days?"

"I don't know about that."

"You considered yourself a very brave man, didn't you?"

"I don't know about that."

All His Deeds Cowardly.

"I call all the things I've done very cowardly," said Orchard with an even voice.

Richardson asked Orchard as to some of Haywood's public utterances about the time Peabody attempts were being made, one to the effect that the Western Federation of Miners did not care who was governor.

"Mr. Haywood often said things on the outside that he talked about differently to us," said Orchard.

"You used to do the same thing, didn't you?"

"Yes, I did up to the time I changed and decided to tell the truth."

Orchard was being questioned as to the make-up of the bombs prepared for Governor Peabody when the luncheon recess was ordered.

Attorney T. J. Logan went to Plymouth today on business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Emmons are expected home Thursday morning from their eastern trip.

Architect C. R. Weatherhogg has completed the interior plans for the new Elks' building, and the final drawings will be submitted for approval at a meeting of the building committee this evening.

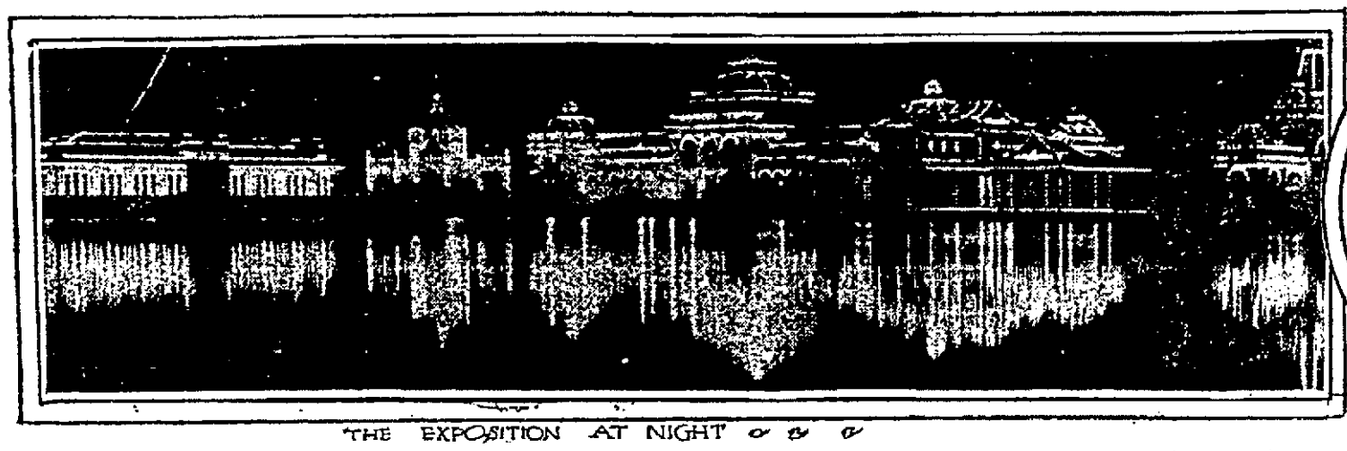
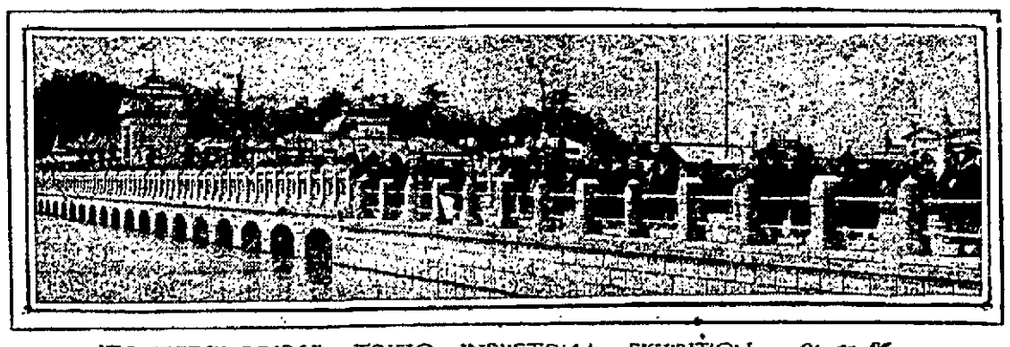
JAPAN PREPARING FOR A GREAT EXPOSITION



THE EXPOSITION AT NIGHT

BARON K KANEKO PRESIDENT OF INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION



KWANGETSU BRIDGE TOKIO INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION

MR. OZAKI, MAYOR OF TOKIO

BARON SENGE, PRESIDENT OF THE EXPOSITION WELCOME SOCIETY

Tokio, Japan, June 11.—Baron Kaneko, so well known to the business world of the United States and Europe, has been designated by the emperor for the presidency of the great exposition to be held in 1912. The general outlines of the enterprise show that, while it is to be semi-international in character, its chief purpose is to display to the world the confidently anticipated success of the marvelous industrial campaign to which the Japanese nation—as a nation—is lending all its resources.

As a sort of prelude to the greater event of five years hence there is now being held at Tokio an industrial exposition which, while in its inspiration a purely municipal undertaking, is in reality national in its character, and as such worthy the study of those interested in Japan's industrial development.

To the foreign sightseer there is much in this show to warrant not only one visit but several. Be he ever so indifferent to the material side to the clanging machinery, to the mineral displays, to the "show how made" of native industry, even to the art—his soul will surely be stirred to interest by the crowds of swaggering young veterans so proudly wearing the uniform of the mikado's modern soldiery or by the apparently never-ending procession of prettily kimonoed mothers and "little mothers" with the doll-like coming generation strapped comfortably to their backs. It must be a highly aggravated case of western nerves that does not find music in the "click-click-click" of the myriad of wooden clogs on the gravelled walks; a heart with no tinge of human sympathy that does not beat a little quicker at the sight of the happy family groups in the dainty tea houses; a soul dead to all beautiful things that does not experience a thrill of genuine delight in the all-pervading beauty of a picture in which the only jarring element is the Japanese man in his foreign clothes.

Fortunately, however, he is comparatively little in evidence in this exposition crowd. The women and the children largely predominate; the majority of the men who wander through the grounds and wonder, open mouthed, at the majesty of the buildings come from far off parts of the empire, free as yet from any considerable contact with the foreigner. The soldiers and the gendarmerie would add more to the picture were they accourted as the ancient samurai, no doubt; but although their modern uniforms do not particularly add to the beauty of the ensemble, they at least do not materially subtract from it.

Russian Terrorists Also Fix a Youth Suspected of Spying.

St. Petersburg, June 11.—The body of a youth found today in a wood in the suburbs of St. Petersburg with his throat cut and face unrecognizably mutilated has led to the discovery of an open air bomb factory with a large quantity of explosives nearby. It is supposed that the young man was executed by the terrorists as a spy.

THE DEATHS.

SCHLAUDROFF.

Mrs. Christine Schlaudroff, a pioneer resident of Allen county, died at 7 o'clock Monday evening at the old homestead on the Wayne trace, seven miles southeast of Fort Wayne, at the age of more than 80 years. Death was due to the infirmities of age. Mrs. Schlaudroff was the widow of Louis Schlaudroff, whose death occurred two years ago.

She was born in Koenigsberg, Hesse-Darmstadt, Germany, October 5, 1825, and came to America in 1855. In the following year she was united in marriage to Mr. Schlaudroff. Surviving children include Henry Schlaudroff, of Marion township; Christian, William and John Schlaudroff, of Adams township; Mrs. Lizzie Griebel, of Marion township; Mrs. Mary Brown, of Madison township; and Mrs. Minnie Miller, of Fledheim, Adams county. Louis C. Schlaudroff, of this city, the county humane officer, is a stepson of the deceased. Mrs. Schlaudroff was a life-long member of the Lutheran church.

Funeral services Thursday.

FISCHBACH.

August Fischbach, of South Bend, died at 1 o'clock this morning at the Lutheran hospital in this city from cancer of the stomach after an illness of one year. Mr. Fischbach was 58 years of age and had been a patient at the institution since May 1.

He is survived by the widow and two children—Gust Fischbach, a teacher at Friedheim, Adams county, and Mrs. Frederick Schlund, of Bingen, Adams county. The remains were removed to the Wellman undertaking rooms, and on Thursday morning will be shipped to South Bend, where funeral services and interment will occur.

FATAL ELEVATOR ACCIDENT.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 11.—Two men are reported dead and a dozen injured as the result of the falling of an elevator this afternoon in the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company's large coal yard at Port Richard in the northeastern part of the city.

FEDERAL TRIBUNAL WAS IN SESSION BUT A MOMENT

Col. J. A. Scott in Solitary Majesty Performs Unique Duty.

The official records in the government building show that the June term of the United States circuit and district courts for the district of Indiana duly convened in Fort Wayne this morning. And the records, officially transcribed by Deputy Clerk Logan, are correct. The session lasted but a moment, however, and no business was transacted, yet in this brief moment Col. John A. Scott, deputy United States marshal, reigned in stately and impressive, though solitary majesty in the performance of an unique official function.

Today was the statutory day for the beginning of the term of federal court in Fort Wayne, and it must convene on the day prescribed by law. Two weeks ago, however, Judge A. B. Anderson discovered that it would be impossible for him to reach Fort Wayne at this time, and he issued an order to deputy officials here directing that the term be officially opened and at once adjourned until June 18. It was in accordance with this order that Deputy United States Marshal Scott this morning solemnly walked into the empty court room, ceremoniously declared the court opened and with equal ceremony at once declared it adjourned until June 18. The record was made by Clerk Logan accordingly. About half a minute of time was utilized in the ceremony and the only persons present to hear Col. Scott's official proclamation were Deputy Revenue Collectors Sharp and Barton.

Judge Anderson will reach Fort Wayne next Tuesday to take up the work of the session and a jury venire of twenty-four persons has also been summoned. A damage suit against the Baltimore and Ohio railroad is the most important action upon the docket for the term.

NOT YET IDENTIFIED.

Krueger Is Being Held Until Police Officers Look at Him.

Robert Krueger is still being held at the county jail and will not be released until the policemen who were on duty the night of the murder of Columbus Croy at Woodburn, have identified him as a man who was lodged at headquarters. Sheriff Grice stated this afternoon that nothing new had been developed in the matter, although he and the citizens of Woodburn are working hard on the case.

CABRERA DENIES HE IS DEAD.

New York, June 11.—Dr. Ramon Bengoechoa, consul general for Guatemala at New York, received a cable dispatch from President Cabrera, of Guatemala, today, reading that there was no truth in the reports of President Cabrera's assassination, which had been reported by way of Mexico, Sunday.

JAMES BRYCE HONORED.

Chicago, Ill., June 11.—Ambassador James Bryce delivered the convocation oration at the graduating exercises of the University of Chicago today. The subject of the address was "What University Instruction May Do to Provide Intellectual Pleasures for Later Life." After the granting of degrees to the graduating class, President Judson conferred on the ambassador the honorary title of doctor of laws.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cress, of Decatur, attended the Ben Hur meeting at the Majestic theater last night.

Mrs. Emily Bell, whose husband, Seeley Bell, died recently in Cleveland, has returned to this city to permanently reside.

At the regular meeting Wednesday night Degree of Honor No. 23 will elect officers for the coming year. All members are requested to attend.

Referee Sol A. Wood has fixed June 20 as the date for the first meeting of creditors in the bankruptcy petition of John F. Herber.

STATE CHANGES CHARGE AGAINST SCHROEDER TO ASSAULT

Day Spent in Trying Case in City Court—The Other Cases.

After having taken evidence all morning in the case of Edward Schroeder, charged with having attempted to stab Rock Farland, leader of the strike-breakers at the Bass foundry, Deputy Prosecutor Harry W. Ninde this afternoon changed the affidavit to simple assault, and on account of the number of witnesses and the lengthy examination of each, the trial was still on at 4 o'clock.

Schroeder is charged with having gone into the Bass foundry yard and attempted to start a fight with Farland for which he was knocked down by a young fellow who gave the name of Gill. He has been in jail since last Friday afternoon.

Cases Are Continued.

The cases of assault and battery against Christ Raquet and George Eppert, who created a disturbance on a car at the show grounds last night, were continued until tomorrow morning under bonds of $50 each which they were unable to give. They got on the car with two women and were using profane language and when Conductor E. G. Felger asked them to quit or get off the car they started trouble. Conductor Kellogg, in charge of another car, went to the assistance of his fellow workman and both were beaten. Eppert was up not long ago for an assault on a woman on Chicago street and served a term in jail for associating. He is a waiter in a Calhoun street saloon.

The case against John Kennedy for keeping his saloon open Sunday was continued until tomorrow.

George Breuer was fined $1 and costs for provoke and sentence was suspended.

Cyrus Stanley, for train-climbing, was allowed to go.

POLICEMAN'S HOUSE STRUCK.

Family Stunned and Building Slightly Damaged Inside.

Lightning struck the house of patrolman Ernest Paul, at 223 West Woodland avenue yesterday afternoon and knocked the top off the chimney. His wife and two daughters were slightly shocked and paper in three rooms was damaged. The chimney was also knocked off and the entire loss is covered by insurance.

I have for sale, on easy terms, a new 7-room house on High street, just finished.

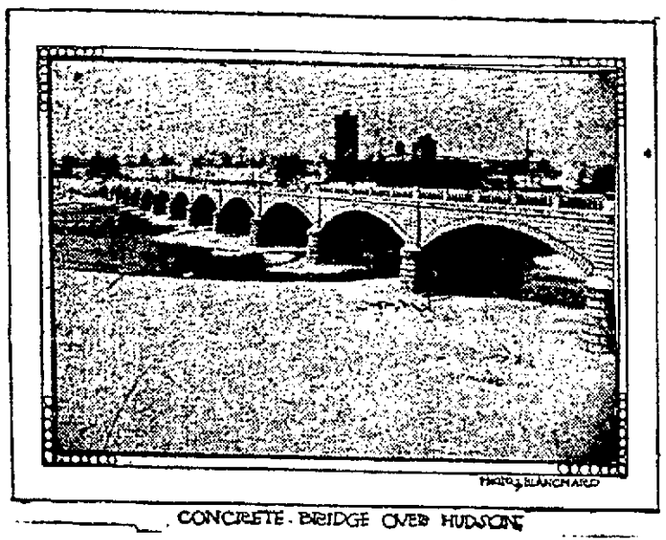
Longest Concrete Bridge in World Spans the Hudson.



CONCRETE BRIDGE OVER HUDSON.

South Glens Falls, N. Y., June 11.—What is believed here to be the longest, solid concrete bridge in the world spans the Hudson river at Sandy Hill, N. Y. Construction of it was started in the summer of 1906, and the work will soon be completed. The bridge is built of concrete blocks joined together with cement. It is one thousand feet long and contains forty thousand block of concrete. The railing is made of that material, and in it are 3,224 pieces. There is an accommodation for a trolley line as well as a roadway for vehicles.

Governor Hughes will attend the ceremony of the formal opening of the bridge, about the middle of next month. It is Sandy Hill's purpose to make the celebration one of the memorable things in its history.

Mrs. Virgil Brumbaugh, of Churubusco, who opened fire on her husband when she discovered him in the society of other women and a man in a saloon Saturday evening, was arrested Monday on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. By agreement she was held to the September term of court under bond of $200 which she gave.

Business firms of Blackford county are taking warning by the arrest of persons in other places for violation of the pure food laws. At Montpelier one saloonkeeper has labeled all his bottles in such a manner that no one seems to know what he means. He has had labels printed and pasted on his bottled wet goods which read as follows: "This bottle is sold for what it holds, not what it contains." This distinction without a difference is more than the friends of the "mixologist" can decipher, but the saloon man says he has been advised to label his goods that way, and it will conform with the pure food law, and he has done it.

William Beck, of Peru, 44 years old, committed suicide at 5 o'clock Monday morning in the store owned by the Jones Hardware company, by shooting himself through the brain. When George Jones, proprietor, opened the door at 5:30 he found Beck lying across the counter, and, thinking him asleep, he punched him with his umbrella and asked him what he was doing there. The revolver was still clenched in the dead man's hand. The weapon and four cartridges had been taken from a showcase by Beck, who attempted suicide some months ago by turning on the gas in his room. He was well known and at one time held an interest in the hardware company. He leaves a widow and three children.

Unable to withstand the fire of questions hurled at her by the opposing attorney, Miss Mayme Balzer collapsed under the nervous strain while on the witness stand at Huntington in her suit for damages against the Waring Glove factory, and court had to adjourn for a time. The testimony of the plaintiff's witnesses is to the effect that while looking for a shuttle which she had dropped from her machine her hair was caught in a line shaft in a frightful manner. In order to release her from her uncomfortable position it was found necessary to cut off most of her hair. The loss of her hair together with an irreparable damage to her nervous system is reckoned by the young lady to be worth $5,000 for which she says "pay me."

EVERY MAN HIS OWN DOCTOR.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pains.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.

Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.

One bottle of each of these five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale by all druggists.

CURED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Geo. A. Sherman, Lisbon Red Mills, Lawrence Co., N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years; had taken a well known kidney medicine and other remedies that were recommended, but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes, day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. I believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure." Dreier & Bro.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. A few doses started the brick-dust-like substance and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." BADLY MIXED UP.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience. He says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed to cure blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by Drier & Bro., druggists. 50c.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

The president again rises to remark to the railroads that there is such a thing as provoking a good-natured man too far. And he knows the man, too.

It is more than clear that Mrs. Ayres will shortly qualify for membership. That West Point row promises extremely interesting controversies. "Dear Maria" could probably furnish some practical counsel if she were solicited.

Japan, with a cockiness quite pardonable, is taking little things in San Francisco too hard and insisting on making Uncle Sam humble himself a bit more than is warrantable. No probability of such a thing as war, but if it should come the Japs would learn that the eagle can fight up much closer to his class and reputation than the bear did.

Gas Addicks has gone to Russia to make a barrel or so of money. Nothing goes in Russia unless a grand duke is in with it. Here is going to be a case where neither side can get it all—a new experience for both Addicks and the grand dukes.

It couldn't be done in this country. A feature of the strike of the French winegrowers is the precipitation of anarchy by resignation of all the mayors and other officials of communities. Might strike like sin in this country, but would not be likely to get any one to resign.

President Roosevelt in his Jamestown speech to the members of the National Editorial association took occasion to reiterate with an added force his demand for an inheritance tax and an income tax. The president is evidently dead set on the proposition that great wealth must be curbed and that swollen fortunes must be in some way got at. The president takes the view that a tax that puts a good burden on wealth not only helps to relieve the load where it bears too heavily and at the same time is a counter-check to the menaces of immense fortunes. Something along the lines of his views may be expected in congress next year.

It is not clear why some republican newspapers affect to regard as a joke the presidential boom recently launched for United States Senator Philander C. Knox, of Pennsylvania. Knox is one of the ablest men in the United States senate today. He is the first member Pennsylvania has had for many years in the upper branch of congress of whom she had any sound reason to feel proud. He served in the McKinley and Roosevelt administrations with distinguished honor as attorney general. The fact is that Senator Knox is about the ablest of all the candidates and much the kind of a man a national convention is apt to tie up to when looking for a way out of difficulties.

Those Japanese in this country who are busy fomenting in Japan a public opinion hostile to the United States and conspiring against the peace of the two nations are fooling with dangerous playthings. Remote as are the probabilities, there yet is the possibility of war between Japan and the United States. There has so far occurred nothing which, even abstractly considered, ought to be thought of as affording the least basis for a break between the two countries. The feeling throughout the United States for Japan is and has been friendly. It is only on the Pacific coast that there is any manifestation of prejudice. But a war fever is easily started and Japan has lately succeeded the United States as that power which believes it "can lick all creation." Japan must be dealt with for the present delicately, though it must be, as reported, that the government at Washington is beginning to feel considerable irritation from the mountains Japan has been making of molehills during the past half dozen months.

The uninformed are led largely to the belief that Marvin Kuhns was the first and last of freebooter heroes Northern Indiana has been able to boast of. Shades of "Silc" Doty and McGregor MacDougall! And there were the later Smalley boys who out west succeeded in getting quite a reputation for deeds of blood and violence. The fact of the matter is that Kuhns has never done any really great things as a robber. Horse stealing is held by thieves to be about the lowest form of stealing, a vulgar aspect of the trade. It is easy to steal a horse and generally may be done without risk. Kuhns was a horse-thief; nothing more. Most of Kuhns' encounters with officers of the law were the results of his want of common sense; not the manifestation of reckless daring. There was nothing in the facts of Kuhns' life about which romance may be spun. There was nothing in his career worth preserving in a book. It is an attempt to make a Jack Shepard, a Claude Duval or Dick Turpin out of very inferior raw material.

Big Playhouse's Cashier Missing—Thespians Fear for Savings.

EDWARD J MAGUIRE.

New York, June 11.—Absent for more than a week, search is being made today for Edward J. Maguire, cashier of the Hippodrome, who has been employed in the mammoth playhouse since the premier performance several years ago until Friday last. Expert auditors are now at work on the books of the theater. Maguire was an employe of the American Audit company and is said to have been bonded for a large sum by a well known surety company.

Shubert & Anderson, the present proprietors of the playhouse, are not believed to have lost anything by the cashier's disappearance, but owing to Maguire's failure to destroy charge checks and slips for advance drawings on their salaries it is feared that many of the employes of the Hippodrome may suffer. Men and women employed by the firm used the cashier's office as a bank and beside drawing on their salaries often placed part of their wages with Maguire to care for until the season closed.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

What The Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Col. C. B. Oakley has returned to the city after a thirteen months' absence.

Yesterday Robertson & Harper secured a divorce for one of their clients in just five minutes.

Dr. Buchman, who is justly popular and deserving, drives as neat and stylish a turnout as is seen on the Berry street boulevard.

Five contestants were engaged in a walking match at the Academy of Music, scheduled to go twenty-eight hours for a purse of $100.

Messrs. Fleming and Pape, of the Peters' Box and Lumber company, are looking for a suitable central location in which to establish a furniture factory.

This evening at 7:30 o'clock the county and city officers and members of the city council assemble at the city hall, and headed by the City band will march to the Catholic library hall fair.

The ladies who are to attend the National booth that is in charge of Mrs. Max Nirdlinger are Mrs. C. B. Woodworth, Mrs. Sid Lumbard, Mrs. C. M. Dawson, Mrs. R. J. Fisher, Mrs. Judge Lowry, and the Misses Chittenden, Oppenheimer, Lowry, McClelland, Brackenridge, Kane, Pratt, Maier and Myerson.

Since the appearance of Charley MacDougall's pen picture in the Penman's Gazette, he has been in almost daily receipt of letters from gushing females soliciting correspondence, to which he of course facetiously replies. He has also received numerous letters from young men asking his opinion on their penmanship, but unlike the girls, they generally enclose a quarter or a half dollar.

Hon. A. P. Edgerton's address before the graduating class at the high school last night certainly betrays a versatile mind. No word of more than one syllable was used, and still the address is able, well conceived and brilliant. Its simplicity adds to its grandeur. The address is suggestive, not only to the student, but to every lover of literature. It is bereft of modern affectation, still practical ideas are plainly expressed, and in a manner, too, which commands the admiration of all. Mr. Edgerton's simple style is indeed worthy of imitation.

HOW TO CHOOSE NOVELS.

It is the somewhat acrid contention of a contemporary reader that the very best way to choose novels is not to choose any at all; and the second best way is never to read the novels of living authors. By this method one foregoes Mr. Hardy and Mr. Meredith, which he admits is a dreadful loss; but he insists that one escapes so much that is tawdry and vacant along with them that it seems worth while. But if, for any reason, one feels obliged to read novels, he would have him first read the reviews, carefully avoid all those that receive laudatory notices, the best sellers, of course, being always beneath the notice of real readers, and choose those that receive scant and derogatory reviews. He maintains that it is an exhilarating revelation to find how much really good stuff may be unearthed by this method, systematically carried out.

There is no insult humanity, as a whole, resents quite so much as a new idea, or even an old idea in an unfamiliar dress. If we were not so accustomed to hearing it quoted from "Hamlet," and so accustomed, too, to taking all "Hamlet's" sayings for granted as having received the seal of the world's approval, we should resent the saying that there are more things in the world than are dreamt of in our philosophy. What we enjoy thinking is, as a rule, that we know all there is, have measured all the forces, and that the next step is easy and assured. Now those novels that are dismissed with a snub often have either a new idea or an old and worthy one in a new dress, or a rarefied atmosphere, or a popularized philosophy in them.—From Harper's Weekly.

THROWN FROM CAR.

The venerable Louis Griebel, while attempting to get off a Broadway car at the transfer corner Monday, was thrown to the ground and might have been seriously injured. Just as he stepped off the platform the car started, and consequently he was thrown, but was not injured. Mr. Griebel is very well known and is past ninety-one years of age.

Health is Woman's Wealth

Don't Trifle With It, Don't Neglect It, Guard It As Your Dearest Treasure.

ZOA-PHORA

For Maiden, Wife and Mother, Watch First Indications of Disease or Derangement of the Delicate Organs.

Dear daughter, sister, wife or mother, do you realize that health is more to you and your family than all other earthly blessings? Do you know that to have perfect health and keep it should be your greatest desire?

Why? Because health—a woman's normal health—will enable you to be and to do and to feel just as a woman should. That's what you want, isn't it?

Now listen! Zoa-Phora is made for women. It is admirably adapted to assist nature in building up her delicate and beautifully constructed constitution. For the well and slightly ailing it is a nerve-tonic and tissue-builder. It contains no opiate or narcotic drug to injure the system and is used with perfect safety by the young daughter, wife or mother. For the more seriously afflicted—women suffering with any form of womanly weakness or disease—Zoa-Phora is worth its weight in gold, as is testified by women everywhere. Hundreds of these women live in your own state—some of them right in your own neighborhood. Ask them about Zoa-Phora.

On March 7, 1903, Miss Retta Griffith, of Columbiaville, Mich., wrote, "I will gladly send my testimonial for Zoa-Phora, as the greatest, most strengthening tonic I have ever known for women. I suffered with leucorrhea and painful menses for nearly six years. I took different kinds of medicines and doctored with three different doctors, but they did me no good. They said I would have to have an operation, but thanks to Zoa-Phora, it has nearly stopped the pain and has entirely cured the discharge. I was so weak when I began taking your medicine that I could not sit up a whole day at a time, but now I am entirely well." On April 18, 1907, Miss Griffith writes, "You may refer any one to me and I will still gladly recommend Zoa-Phora." Does this not prove that the results from the use of Zoa-Phora are permanent?

The best way to become assured that Zoa-Phora will help you is to go to your druggist and obtain a bottle and begin the treatment at once according to plain directions found in the package. Just ask for Zoa-Phora—no other explanation will be needed and no mistake will be made. You will receive the medicine already prepared, compounded in just the right proportions, and put up in sealed, sterilized, one dollar bottles.

Mrs. Edna Wallace is Critically Ill.

New York, June 11.—Her health broken by her recent theatrical season, Mrs. Edna Wallace Hopper is critically ill in her home, No. 28 West Thirty-third street, and it is feared that owing to her weak condition typhoid fever will develop. Mrs. Hopper is under the constant care of a physician and grave fears are entertained for her recovery.

Mrs. Hopper was forced to abandon all engagements ten days ago and went to Atlantic City to try to recuperate. Her condition became worse and she was brought to this city for treatment.

Dr. Albert Ely was called to attend the actress. Mrs. Hopper's health has not been good for two years. She was ill from an attack of peritonitis two years ago, but after a short illness joined the "About Town" company and played with Lew Fields. Later she took the leading role in "The Chrysanthemum," but soon after signed a contract to appear in vaudeville.

KELLY CASE DISPOSED OF.

St. Louis Does Not Get Player, Who May Now Go Where He Likes.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 11.—The National Base Ball commission held a session here last night to consider the cases of Jake Stahl and Mike Kelly. Stahl was sold by the Washington Americans to the Chicago Americans, but refused to play in Chicago. Kelly, who has been with the Washington American league team, was barred from playing by Ban Johnson, president of the American league, because Kelly is under suspension in the American association.

The commission decided to lay over the Stahl case for one week to hear more evidence.

In the Kelly matter the commission ruled that as long as Kelly is ineligible to play in the American association he may be barred by any other league if such a course should be desired by its president.

The claim of the St. Louis Americans on Kelly was declared invalid. Kelly may now play with any club wanting his services as long as he is not barred by the president of the league in which he may enter.

Indiana Pharmaceutical Association Meets June 18.

The twenty-sixth annual convention of the Indiana Pharmaceutical association will be held at Evansville June 18, 19 and 20. Invitations have been received by the Fort Wayne members requesting that they attend, and a number of them will go. The sessions are always interesting, and the Evansville druggists have made big preparations for the entertainment of several hundred guests. A very attractive souvenir booklet has been issued with the program, and contains many of the public buildings of Evansville.

Yesterday Patterson-Fletcher Co. placed on sale 800 fine hand tailored suits made by Hart, Schaffner & Marx. 500 of them will be sold at $15 and 300 at $25. Every suit in the $15 lot is at least a $20 suit. Every suit in the $25 lot is at least a $30 suit, and the most of them are $32 and $35 suits.

Mrs. Burnett is Ready for War.

New York, June 11.—"Let them take the case to court and prove what they can; the sooner they do it the better I shall be pleased. Sue me for divorce, indeed? Sue me, when I should have been the one to begin suit? I only fear that my patience will not last until everything is told in court, when I can prove by documentary evidence that the charges against me are based on false statements. But what I most fear is that they will not take their story to court."

With eyes flashing and cheeks crimson with indignation, Mrs. Belle Burnett, the young and beautiful wife of Charlton Rogers Burnett, son of a wealthy family and man about town, yesterday made this statement in connection with the suit for divorce brought by her husband, in which Arthur G. Humphreys, a banker and broker, is named as corespondent.

Mrs. Burnett says that her attorney, Arthur K. Wing, has in his possession evidence that will prove a sensation if it is introduced in court proceedings.

MEALS FOR TOMORROW

(Chicago Record-Herald.)

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 1907.

—Breakfast.—
Cream of Wheat. Cream and Sugar.
Tomatoes on Toast.
Southern Beaten Biscuit.
Rhubarb and Orange Marmalade.
Coffee.

—Luncheon.—
Creamed Asparagus Served Hot in Paper Cases.
Cold Sliced Meat. Kaiser Semmeln.
Fruit. Sponge Cakelets.
Tea.

—Dinner.—
Clear Broth. Olives.
Spanish Veal Balls. Tomato Sauce.
Early June Peas.
Cress Salad. Wafers.
Boston Cream Cakes with Filling of Whipped Cream and Strawberries.
Coffee.

Note—For breakfast a bit of broiled bacon or poached eggs may be served with the toast. On a cool day this seems more satisfying; should it be hot it might not be wished for.

Kaiser Semmeln—Soften a cake of compressed yeast in one-fourth a cup of boiled water (luke-warm) and stir in about three-fourths a cup of flour, or enough to make a dough that may be kneaded. Knead the little ball of dough till it is smooth and elastic. Then make a deep cut across the dough in both directions. Have ready two cups of boiled water cooled to a luke-warm temperature, and into this put the ball of dough. It will sink to the bottom of the dish, but will gradually rise as it becomes light. In about fifteen minutes it will float upon the water, a light, puffy "sponge." Into this water and sponge stir a teaspoonful of salt and between six and seven cups of flour. Knead or pound the dough about twenty minutes. Let rise in a temperature of about 70 degrees Fahrenheit, until the mass is doubled in bulk. Divide into pieces weighing about three ounces each. (There should be about fourteen pieces.) Shape these into balls. When all are shaped, cut down into each with a sharp knife to make five divisions. Set the balls into buttered tins some distance apart, brush over the tops generously with melted butter, and set to bake at once in a hot oven. Bake twenty to twenty-five minutes. When nearly baked brush over with the beaten white of an egg and return to the oven to finish baking. Bake the biscuits as soon as they are cut and brushed with butter. Only by this means can the shape and fine texture of this form of bread be secured. This recipe is said by those who have eaten the bread in Vienna to give a near approach to this famous bread. —Boston Cooking School Magazine.

Spanish Veal Balls—Remove skin, bone and waste from enough veal to yield one pound and a half (two pounds of veal steak will give this quantity) and chop the veal with one-fourth a pound of fat salt pork or bacon. Rub over an earthen mixing bowl with a crushed clove of garlic, put in the chopped meat, one cup of fine bread crumbs from the center of a stale loaf, two unbeaten eggs, a teaspoonful of salt, a dash each of paprika and celery salt, a level teaspoon of sugar and a tablespoon of fine chopped parsley. Mix the whole together thoroughly, then form into balls. Roll these in flour to coat them lightly, then set into a frying basket and plunge into a kettle of hot fat. Let cook about two minutes, just long enough to coagulate the outside and keep the balls in shape. Drain on soft paper. Have ready, very hot, a pint of tomatoes thickened with a level teaspoon of flour mixed with half a cup of cold water; add a palatable seasoning of celery salt and paprika, then drop in the balls, one by one, cover and let simmer half an hour. Serve on a platter with the tomato sauce poured around, and a sprig of parsley on each ball.—Boston Cooking School Magazine.

Recipe for Strawberry Cocktail—Add to the juice of three oranges the juice of a lemon and powdered sugar to taste, making the mixture rather tart; stir until the sugar is dissolved then chill. Stem, wash, drain and chill some choice strawberries. At serving time cut the berries into quarters or halves, dispose them in cocktail glasses, cover with the fruit juice and add a tablespoonful of finely cracked or shaved ice. This is a novel dainty greatly esteemed as a first course at luncheon or dinner.—Amelia Sulzbacher.

ELWOOD NOT GAS TOWN.

Company Which Has Been Furnishing Natural Supply Abandons Business.

Elwood, Ind., June 11.—The doom of natural gas in Elwood has been sounded. This was one of the last cities of the "belt" to give up the service, but there will be no natural gas furnished by the Citizens' Light and Heat company after the first of next November. The company is advertising for sale about sixteen miles of pipe lines, twenty-nine wells, with casing and tubing, gas engines, pumping station and machinery and all of its equipment of the gas fields.

The explanation is made that on account of the failure of natural gas, the field must be abandoned and the company will supply gas from the artificial basis after Oct. 1. The property will be sold immediately, but possession will not be given until that date, the lines being reserved for the company's use during September.

The artificial plant will be in working order by that time, and for the first time since the discovery of gas in Indiana, Elwood will be without the natural product. A big tank is already up and the artificial station in readiness for work.

SIPS ACID IN TOMB'S SHADE.

Forlorn Girl Yields to Despondency's Call and Attempts Suicide.

Lafayette, Ind., June 11.—Believing that she had lost her last friend in the death of Helen Gougar, and that life was no longer worth living, Minnie Tyler, 20 years old, went to Green wood cemetery yesterday and drank carbolic acid with suicidal intent.

The girl's father is serving a sentence in prison for a revolting crime of which she was the victim, but Mrs. Gougar took a deep interest in the girl, gave her good counsel and assisted her in leading a straight and upright life.

When Mrs. Gougar died last week the girl believed that no other would take the same interest in her and decided to end it all. Medical attention was secured, however, and the girl may live.

Wilmington, Del., June 11.—The stockholders of the American Pneumatic Service company, who are engaged in a bitter contest over the control of the $20,000,000 corporation, resumed their annual meeting at the Clayton house today after a recess of ten days. The company is chartered under the laws of Delaware and its principal offices are in Boston. The fight is between W. L. S. Dillaway, of Boston, president of the company, and a large number of stockholders who desire to gain control of the corporation because they are opposed to his administration of the company's affairs.

Warsaw, Ind., June 11.—Because his wife announced that she would not longer live with him, Homer Becraft, of this city, attempted suicide yesterday by taking an ounce of corrosive sublimate. After a quarrel with his wife Sunday Mr. Becraft decided on death.

He placed the poison in a tumbler of water and drank the contents. His agony was so intense that he was glad to drink vinegar given him as a kind of peace offering by Mrs. Becraft. If he recovers the physicians say it will be because of his wife's thoughtfulness and haste in administering the vinegar.

PARISIAN AFTERNOON GOWN.

These stunning costumes are much worn in Paris now, and are so becoming to tall, slender women that they will probably be popular here during the coming summer. Both costume and wrap are made on such comparatively simple lines that they will be easy for the amateur dressmaker to follow. The coat is an especially smart model, and will do equally well for carriage use or for evening wear at mountain or seashore resorts.

SELLS LAST WALNUT TREE.

Man Says Ten Years Will See End of Wabash Lumber Industry.

Wabash, Ind., June 11.—The last of Wabash county's giant walnut trees came with the selling of thirty trees from the George and Elmer Bowman farm, south of this city, to E. L. Aukerman. There is not a walnut tree in Wabash county now that is over twelve inches in diameter. From several trees six logs were sawed twelve feet in length.

The trees were all seventy-five years or more old. The price paid for the walnut trees is kept a secret. Mr. Aukerman says that within five years saw mills will have passed from Wabash county, and within ten years from Indiana.

SWAYZEE SHUTS OUT SALOON.

Blanket Remonstrance Drives Liquor Applicant to a Withdrawal.

Marion, Ind., June 11.—In the face of a blanket remonstrance, George Pennington yesterday withdrew his application for a license to sell liquor at Swayzee in Sims township. He is the third person within a month to give up without a contest after applying for a license in this township.

The temperance people were alert and ready to make vigorous opposition to the granting of the license had Pennington not chosen to quit voluntarily. One saloon continues to operate at Swayzee, but the validity of the license held by the proprietor will be contested in the higher courts.

Body of Young Man Found in Ruins of His Store.

Selma, Ala., June 11.—The remains of Will Skinner, a young man, were found badly charred in the ruins of his store near Sardis at midnight. It is claimed that shots were heard just before the fire, which gives rise to the theory of murder and arson for the purpose of robbery.

A Detroit Woman Learns to Avoid Powders and Rouge.

(From the Detroit Journal.)

I have found a wash for the complexion, being used in the large cities of the east by the women who "know," and it is a miracle what it will do for the complexion, giving the poorest skin a beautiful, soft, velvety bloom and removing all manner of defects. In order to have the wash pure it should be made at home. Ask a druggist for one ounce of Cologne Spirits, four ounces of Eppotone and two ounces of Rose Water. Dissolve the Eppotone in a pint of hot water. When cool strain and add the Cologne Spirits and Rose Water. You will find the results of using this wash simply wonderful and your face will never need powder.

Of Detroit.

DAUGHTERS MORE AFFECTIONATE THAN SONS.

After a son and daughter are married, you will observe that the parents are much more prone to visiting the home of the daughter than that of the son. It is one of the commonest things for a mother to spend prolonged periods in the home of a married daughter, but it is somewhat rare for her to pay a long visit to a son's home, and in that way again a daughter's affection for the old home and parents is strengthened, says Woman's Life.

And, of course, we know that a married daughter is far more about the old place than a married son, and her children are more frequently with their grandparents than his children.

In short, one way or another, a daughter it is who proves the more true and affectionate, hardly ever a son.

It is a daughter who, when married, will first fly to a parent's aid if help is required; she will give up all she can in order to benefit her parents. A son will not, as a rule; he has not got that deep, everlasting love for the home and parents which seems to be, firstly, born in a girl, and, secondly, cultivated by habit.

Use for this the head of a young pig, with heart, liver, kidneys and all the lean trimmings. Do not use the fat pieces. Take from the head as much of the jaw bone as possible, with all the teeth, and cut off the gristly snout and ears. Clean thoroughly and put into a large saucepan with the heart, liver, kidneys and lean meat. Cover with cold water and boil until all the bones in the head fall apart. Strain off the liquor into another pot and set back on the stove to keep warm. Pick over the meat, removing all the bits of bone and gristle. Return the meat to the strained liquor and again place over the fire, seasoning with salt, black pepper and sage. Now stir into the liquor corn meal and buckwheat in the proportion of two of corn meal to one of buckwheat and cook until the entire mass is about the consistency of mush. Pour into deep pans and put in the cellar to cool. This is a cold weather dish, but is excellent in a northern camp for the summer.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

The cause of Rheumatism is a sour, acid condition of the blood, brought about by indigestion, chronic constipation, and the accumulation in the system of refuse matter which the natural eliminative organs have failed to carry out. This refuse or waste matter ferments and sours, generating uric acid which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. One may also be born with a predisposition or tendency to Rheumatism, because like all blood diseases it can be transmitted from parent to child. The aches and pains of the disease are only symptoms which you may scatter or relieve with liniments, plasters, blisters, etc., or deaden with opiates. As soon, however, as such treatment is left off or there is any exposure to cold or dampness, or after an attack of indigestion or constipation, the wandering pains, sore muscles and joints, and tender places on the flesh return, and the sufferer finds that he has merely checked the symptoms while the real cause of the disease remains in the blood. Rheumatism can never be cured while the blood remains saturated with irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by driving the cause out of the blood. It thoroughly cleanses the blood and renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and expelling all foreign matter from the system. S. S. S. stimulates and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, constantly depositing acrid and corrosive matter in the muscles, joints, nerves and bones, the body is soothed and nourished by rich, health-sustaining blood, which completely and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. is composed of roots, herbs and barks which possess both purifying and tonic properties—just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism. Deafness, Discharging Ears

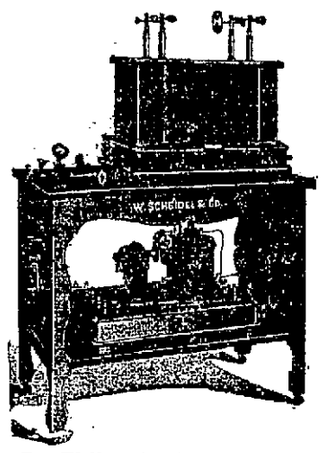
Many Fort Wayne People Cured.



Dr. Wells, of this city, has been securing the most astonishing results in the treatment of ear diseases by a new electrical process. For two years he has been securing results along this line never before thought of by the old time methods. The doctor has a very elaborately equipped office, and the above cut shows one of the electrical machines with which he has achieved such marvelous results. In speaking of its use, Dr. Wells said: "I have secured results in the treatment of suppurating or discharging ears with this treatment that would astonish the average ear specialist. I have cured patients by this method that have resisted the old fashioned treatments for years, and I have not found a single case of chronic suppurating ears that was not favorably affected by this treatment, many of them ceasing to discharge in a week or ten days. I am satisfied I can cure nine cases by this method where the old time treatment will cure one, and do it in half the time. It is only a short time till all the ear specialists must install these machines or go out of business." As yet Dr. Wells is the only ear specialist in Fort Wayne who has made use of this treatment.

The following statement made by Mr. Garn, proprietor of the hotel at New Haven, speaks for itself:

"I have been treated for deafness by Dr. Wells with the most gratifying results. My ears were discharging and I was totally deaf in my right ear and very deaf in the left. Both ears stopped discharging, the noises ceased and my ears are better than they have been for fifteen years. My left ear has regained almost normal hearing and I can now even hear with the ear that was totally deaf. As other treatments had failed to do me any good I feel that this treatment is something that everyone should know about."

M. E. GARN,
New Haven, Ind.

This statement by Mr. Garn is only a fair sample of many other similar ones by other patients. The office of Dr. Wells is equipped for giving you the best of service on any disease of the eye, ear, nose or throat. His office is located at 229 East Berry street, near Majestic Theater.

I SHOULD SAY, YES! AND HURRY
HERE'S SOME NICE TENDER GRASS OVER HERE! DO YOU FEEL BETTER, NOW, DEAR? EH, DO YOU, PET?
OH! I FEEL MUCH BETTER! YES! YOU'D BETTER GO OVER TO HEFFNER'S AND GET A COUPLE OF BALES OF HAY, IN CASE WE DESTROY OUR LAWN, DON'T YOU THINK?

Riverside Drive Farm Ship Building yard.

GASOLENE LAUNCH BEING BUILT BY HENRY WESP ON HIS WEST END AVENUE FARM.

New York, June 11.—Raising peas and sugar corn on a one acre farm worth $1,000,000 and selling this product to neighbors at market prices is a sufficiently rare occupation even in New York. When the plot designed for the raising of early beets is reserved for a shipbuilding yard the farmer becomes unique. He is Henry Wesp, a hard headed, straight forward old New Yorker, who is paying the same rent for his Riverside Drive farm today, where he sows and reaps in the shadow of big apartment houses, that he did twenty-five years ago, when the rental of the loamy hill on the river was the only use for which it was available except that of goat culture.

Wesp has not as much ground under cultivation now as formerly. He had nearly two acres in the early days and the farm extended from Riverside to east of what is now West End avenue, and from what is now Ninety-sixth street, almost to Ninety-fourth. Wesp's house is just the same as of old, however, a wooden story and a half structure, tucked in the side of the hill against a friendly bowlder. It looks down from a twenty foot eminence upon West Ninety-first street, and the farm stretches away to West End avenue.

The Wesp family is as sturdy and independent as its sire. Henry Wesp, jr., is an engineer in the fire department and is attached to an engine company in West 113th street. One of the younger girls removed the family wash from the lines last Tuesday in full view of the fashionable colony which has grown up about the home of her babyhood. In the street were many young and older women whom the shops had done their best to adorn.

Miss Wesp, with one of her father's old derby hats on her abundant brown hair, paid no attention to the millinery creations and gave all her thoughts to the wash. Her admirers might say she does not need milliners, for she is a wholesome looking young girl and enjoys the appearance of sturdy heartiness which characterizes Wesp and all his family.

Farm life is good for those who like it, even in the city. Wesp has not worked in vain, and he need not worry about the future. He likes to till his half acre of ground, however, though he makes no pretence of doing so as a means of subsistence. Eugene Higgins, a wealthy carpet manufacturer, owns the Wesp farm and most of the surrounding squares. On Riverside drive it is solidly built up, but on the West End avenue side the Wesps still have the block to themselves.

BOYS TORMENT A GREAT ELEPHANT WHICH KILLS LAD

Circus Animal Turns on Crowd During Parade in Buffalo.

Buffalo, June 11.—Goaded to fury by the torments of a dozen small boys who had followed her for several blocks of the parade yesterday and pelted her with small missiles, Ruth, a feature of Cole Brothers' circus, and said to be the largest living elephant, shot her trunk into a densely packed crowd of spectators at Lafayette square in Main street. When she withdrew it the body of 12-year-old Rocco Laquino dangled in the air.

With a trumphet of rage the beast lifted the boy above her head and brought him down with terrific force on the pavement. Then she released her hold on her victim and left him prostrate. His skull had been fractured by the impact.

Hit by Another Elephant.

Lily, an elephant following vicious Ruth, struck the body with her foot and knocked it several feet in toward the curb line.

Laquino died in the ambulance on the way to the hospital and the body was taken to the morgue, where 2,000 frantic men and women passed the slab all fearful that it was their son. At 6 o'clock last evening, seven hours after the tragedy, Mrs. Laquino was admitted to the morgue, and at the first sight of the boy's face she fell fainting at his side.

R. S. Dunlop, trainer of the elephants, who was riding at the left side of Ruth, was arrested, the police holding that he should have taken up a position between the elephant and the crowd. A few hours later Dunlop was released on the advice of District Attorney Abbott.

Animal to be Put to Death.

Cole Brothers announced last night that Ruth, who is seventy years old and valued at $7,000, will be put to death with chloroform.

The animal's owners were not determined whether they would attend to the execution or whether they would hand her over to the Humane society for killing. The management of the show declare that yesterday's was the only vicious act of the elephant during the seventeen years she has been with the circus.

WOUNDS ON GIRL'S HEAD FATAL.

Doctor at Trial of Woman for Murder Tells of Cause of Death.

Flandreau, S. D., June 11.—Dr. John Schofield, of Parkston, testified during the trial yesterday of Mrs. Emma Kaufmann, of Sioux Falls, that he had discovered three wounds on the head of Agnes Polreis, of whose murder Mrs. Kaufmann is accused, which, taken in connection with the general condition of the girl, were sufficient to have caused death. He said there were six wounds in all on the head.

The witness was questioned by Judge Frank Aikins for the defense as to which three of the six wounds on the head would prove fatal, but the witness would not specify that any three of the wounds, taken alone, would have caused death.

L. D. Miller, an undertaker of Sioux Falls, to whose place the remains of Agnes Polreis were sent to be embalmed after her death, also testified. The other witnesses were William Moeler, of Parkston, John Polreis, father of the dead girl, and Dr. T. J. Billion, of Sioux Falls.

The state also recalled to the stand Miss Janet Larson and Miss F. E. Coutts, the former superintendent and the latter a nurse in the Sioux Falls hospital, where Agnes Polries died. They were recalled to identify the hospital record of the dead girl, which was admitted as evidence.

Soldiers Feel Bitter Toward Man Who Shot Two of Their Comrades.

Denver, Col., June 11.—L. F. Lambert, the saloonkeeper who shot two United States soldiers of the Twenty-first infantry last Friday night at the target range at Parker, was arrested yesterday and is held at Castle Rock by the sheriff of Douglas county.

Colonel Williams of the Twenty-first infantry sent word to the judge advocate of the department of Colorado to go to Castle Rock and take charge of the prosecution for the government.

The feeling among the soldiers who are at target practice at Parker is still so high that Lambert has been placed under an armed guard, and one has also been placed in charge of Lambert's saloon to prevent its destruction by fire.

Private G. J. Salmon and Musician John Jeunanda, the two men who were shot, are seriously injured.

BARON KUROKI STARTS HOME.

Jap Warrior Says He Had Good Time in United States.

Seatle, Wash., June 11.—General Baron Kuroki spent his last day yesterday in the United States busily. He gave a luncheon in a local hotel to prominent citizens, with Mayor Morely, of Victoria, among the guests. In the evening the baron and suite were given a reception by Judge Thomas Burke, of the Asiatic society, a commercial organization. From this reception the baron's party was taken in carriages direct to the steamship Kaga, which sailed today for the orient.

Before leaving General Kuroki through the American honorary escort, General O. E. Wood said that his visit to this country had been a most pleasant one, and that he leaves with the kindest feelings for Uncle Sam and his people.

McCarren Buys Up "The Daily News."

New York, June 11.—State Senator Patrick H. McCarren has bought a controlling interest in the New York Daily News. He takes charge of the publication today, and has outlined a course that is intended to improve it in every respect, he says. In the management of the paper Patrick J. Daly, his cousin, who has been named as its general manager, and Frank A. Bailey, a Brooklyn real estate broker, will be associated with the state senator. All advertising given out by the corporation general's office will in future be given to the News, it is predicted.

Thomas C. Quinn, former proprietor of the paper, said that from a political point of view the News will be a straight democratic newspaper, and that it will free itself of the part it has recently played in factional fights.

KILLED BY YOUNG WOMEN.

Enid, Okla., June 11.—While painting his target board here yesterday, A. O. Harris, proprietor of a shooting gallery, was accidentally shot and killed by a young woman. The woman asked Harris to paint the targets before she shot. While he was at the targets she was examining one of his rifles and it was discharged. The bullet struck Harris in the neck and he died several hours later.

TWO-CENT FARE LAW

Winona Lake One of Few Resorts Favored by the Railroads With Low Rates.

WHERE THE METHODISTS WILL GO

Winona People Building an Interurban System of Their Own—Effect of Trolley Lines on Excursionists and Real Estate at This Summering Place.

The two-cent fare railroad law, passed in a number of states, is going to interfere with the plans of a good many pleasure-seekers who have been looking forward to reduced rates been looking forward to reduced rates to summer resorts. While the law provides for transportation at two cents a mile, the railroads are withdrawing old-time concessions that the public enjoyed, especially in the way of excursion rates. The two-cent fare law has dealt a hard blow to some of the summer resorts, putting a number of them entirely out of business. One that has been forced to retire is the Island Park Assembly, conducted at Rome City, Ind., for many years. This assembly had its program for the summer made up and was developing its plans, when it found it could not get the railroad rate of other years. Rev. Frank Snyder, from its beginning associated with the Island Park Assembly, and its last secretary, has gone to Winona Assembly, and is now endeavoring to induce the old Island Park constituency to follow him to his new field of work. The indications are that the Methodists, since the Rome City resort will not be opened to them, will make Winona Lake their summer headquarters hereafter. A stock company of Methodists is forming to build a Methodist hotel at Winona Lake at a cost of $60,000 to $75,000. The Northern Indiana Methodist Conference is considering the idea of making Winona Lake its permanent meeting-place.

The Winona Assembly is one of the few summer organizations of its kind that has again been favored by the railroads, perhaps for the reason that last year nearly 400,000 people went to this place, practically all of them using the railroads of the middle West. The Central Passenger Association announces that the old rate to Winona Lake will prevail again this year.

It is possible that before the summer is over most of the people going to Winona Lake can reach the place by trolley, and much of the trip can be made over an interurban system owned by the Winona people. Trolley lines in southern Michigan and northern Indiana now make connection with the Winona line at Goshen, which runs twenty-six miles south to the lake. The Winona road from Peru, which will be about forty-four miles long, is under construction, and thirteen miles of it is in operation. If this portion of the Winona system is completed this summer, it will open trolley connection with central, eastern and western Indiana. It is the intention to put on through cars from Winona Lake to Indianapolis when this part of the road is finished.

The Winona interurban organization differs from any other trolley system in operation. Only a small amount of stock was issued, none of it was sold, and it is held in the treasury of Winona Assembly. Only enough bonds were issued to pay the actual cost of construction of the Winona lines, and in face of the fact that railroads and trolley companies generally are having a hard time to sell their bonds, there has been a ready demand for the Winona bonds. This demand has come largely from small investors, who from year to year go to Winona Lake in the summer, have looked closely into the purposes of the whole Winona idea, and have faith in its future.

The Winona people have done considerable work in the way of surveys and preliminary plans on a line that is to run from east to west from the lake to Fort Wayne, a distance of about forty miles. When this line is built it will open trolley connection with five lines out of Fort Wayne, reaching the Wabash valley in Indiana and much territory in northeastern Indiana and in Ohio.

The Winona Interurban Company has completed at Winona Lake a new power house, which cost over $300,000. It is regarded as one of the best power plants in the country, and it is expected to furnish all the power that will be needed to operate all the lines that the Winona people have built and contemplate building. This powerhouse is on the shore of Winona Lake.

The indications are that when the Winona company gets through building its lines it will open up trolley connection to several million people within a day's ride of the lake. The effect of this trolley project is already being felt at the lake. It has caused an increasing demand for building lots, and the number of homes that are being erected at this place grows larger every year. The demand for building lots has been such that the Winona Assembly is opening up some new territory that is on high ground and offers a picturesque view of Winona Lake and the immediate neighborhood. In the early years of Winona Assembly, people who built homes at the lake constructed them only for summer use, but the cottages now are on a more pretentious order, more attention is given to architecture, and the houses are built for winter use.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by all druggists.

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., June 11.—The government report and ideal weather for the growing crop in the United States and Canada proved too strong a combination to be withstood by the bulls and in consequence prices in the wheat market today declined approximately 2c per bushel, compared with yesterday's final quotations. Every commission house seemed to be loaded with stop loss orders and there was a general rush to sell. September opened ¾@⅞c to 2@2⅛c lower at 96¼c to 97⅛c and for a time held within that range. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 397 cars.

The wheat market became weaker as trading advanced. The close was weak with September down 2⅛@2⅝c at 95¾c.

Higher temperature throughout the corn belt had a weakening effect on the corn market and induced general selling of the new crop futures. September opened ⅛@¼c to ¼@⅝c lower at 53½c to 53⅝c, sold at 53¾c and then declined to 53¼@53⅜c. Local receipts were 851 cars with 398 of contract grade.

The low point of the day for September corn was reached at 53c. Final figures on September showed a net decline of ⅜@¾c at 53⅛c.

The bearish showing of the government report induced liberal profit taking in outs and caused sharp losses in all deliveries. September opened ½@1½c lower at 36c to 37c and sold off to 35¾c.

There was very little trading in provisions and the market was easier. September pork was off 7½c at $16.30. Lard was down 2½c at $9.05@9.07½. Ribs were a shade lower at $8.85@8.87½.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, June 11.—Prices of stocks started downward with the beginning of business. Changes were limited generally to small fractions except in Southern Pacific and Missouri Pacific, which declined a point and Peoples Gas and Hide and Leather preferred, which rose about a point. There were only small transactions.

Opening declines were not extended much, the market thereafter receiving support and rallying briskly. Union Pacific rose from 135½ to 136½ and Reading from 104⅞ to 106½. Rallies in other leaders were not so extensive, but the market ruled generally on a parity with yesterday's closing prices or slightly above. Virginia Iron gained 1⅝ and Western Maryland 1. Corn Products preferred gave way 1 and Twin City Rapid Transit 3 with a rally of 2 points.

Prices moved very narrowly up to the noon hour and very little business was done. Federal Sugar rose 2½ points and American Telephone sold at a decline of 12½. Bonds were steady.

For a brief period after midday the market showed some strength and activity resulting from the placing of large buying orders in Pennsylvania, New York Central, Reading and Union Pacific. High prices realized for these stocks caused heavy selling by the room traders, and the market went off as rapidly as it had gone up. Delaware & Hudson had been up 2½ points, Reading 1⅝, New York Central 1½ and Pennsylvania and Northwestern a point but these advances were speedily wiped out. St. Paul, Union Pacific, Chicago & Alton, Amalgamated Copper, Smelting, Anaconda and Interborough Metropolitan preferred were quoted 1 to 1½ below yesterday's closing.

On rumors of increasing tension in the relation between the United States and Japan, prices sold off further. Union Pacific got down 2⅝. St. Paul, Great Northern preferred, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste Marie, Smelting, Amalgamated Copper and United States Reduction preferred 2, Southern Pacific and Louisville & Nashville and United States Steel 1 point.

The market closed dull and easy. The weakness became pronounced and general with the continued talk of trouble with Japan. The usual speculative favorites were most affective. Union Pacific lost 3¼ points, Amalgamated Copper 2½, Southern Pacific 2¼, Reading, Great Northern Ore Certificates, Lead and General Electric 2 and other leaders 1 to 1¼. The rallies on short coverings were very feeble.

SWITCHMAN INSTANTLY KILLED

W. L. Hobaugh, Who Lived Here a Few Years Ago.

A similarity of names was responsible for a severe shock to relatives of John T. Hobrock in this city this morning. A message to the officers of Fort Wayne lodge No. 136, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, stated that W. L. Hobaugh, a switchman, was instantly killed in the Indiana Habor yards of the Nickel Plate early this morning. The officers glanced at the membership roll and not noticing the initials of the dead man as given in the telegram, hastily decided that he was John T. Hobrock, a former Fort Wayne man, and immediately notified his brother, William Hobrock, moulder at the Western Gas works, and J. H. and M. H. Hobrock, of the Pennsylvania, cousins, who in turn notified other relatives in Huntington and elsewhere, and arrangements were being made to bring the remains here for interment. Conductors G. B. McCormick and E. M. Hall, of the B. R. T., were appointed a committee to go to Indiana Harbor to claim the remains. Then the error was discovered. W. L. Hobaugh, the dead switchman, was for a short time a member of the B. R. T., but his membership was allowed to lapse. One of his membership cards in his pocket led the Indiana Harbor people to notify Fort Wayne lodge. Hobaugh is not well known here, having been here but a short time. It is said that his former home was Peru.

John T. Hobrock, it has been later learned, is in Los Angeles, Cal.

A MAGNIFICENT TRAIN.

Master Mechanics' Special Finest in the Land.

The special train of twelve cars which carried the delegates from the Chicago territory to Atlantic City to attend the annual convention of the Master Mechanics association, passed through this city last night fifty-seven minutes behind schedule time, the delay being caused by some unavoidable stops on the Chicago Terminal division. When out on the road, however, with nothing in its way, the train maintained the high speed schedule of the Pennsylvania "Special," the fastest train in America. The nineteen miles from Columbia City to Fort Wayne was covered in sixteen minutes. The train was undoubtedly the finest extra train ever sent across the state, being with the exception of size exactly like the eighteen-hour flyer. There were 103 passengers aboard when the train left Chicago and this number was increased here by R. J. Fisher, of the Bass company; A. A. Serva, of the Fort Wayne Electric works; C. A. Dunkelberg, of the S. F. Bowser Oil Tank company, and Mr. Freese, of the Kerr Murray Manufacturing company. On the Western division the train ran as a "double header." From Chicago to Fort Wayne Engineers Joseph Voirol and J. H. Stuart, and Firemen C. J. Lapp and I. G. Kilpatrick were in the cabs, and from this city to Crestline Engineers Michael O'Brien and L. M. Pfeiffer and Firemen J. F. Wagner and C. D. Flickinger had charge of the engines.

LOST THUMB AND FINGER.

Master Mechanic Samuel Wass Has Distressing Accident.

At 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon Samuel Wass, sr., master mechanic of the Rhinesmith & Simonson factory, lost the thumb and third finger of his left hand and had one of the other fingers cut by a saw he was operating. He was sawing a short block of wood, which was thrown up and struck Mr. Wass and caused him to fall upon the bench and place his hand upon the rapidly revolving saw. Dr. McEvoy attended the unfortunate man. Mr. Wass has worked about machinery thirty-five years or more and this was the first accident he has met with.

RAILWAY CLERK DIES SUDDENLY

Sunday night Fred Scheuneman, clerk for his father, Supervisor Scheuneman, of the Pennsylvania, died suddenly at the family home in Upper Sandusky. Scheuneman, clerk in Maintenance of Way F. M. Graham's office, a brother of the deceased, has gone to attend the funeral. Ed was at Upper Sandusky Sunday morning and left his brother feeling fairly well.

MOVE TOWER HOUSE TOMORROW

Tomorrow all of the gates at the Hanna street crossing and the crossing of the Pennsylvania and Wabash tracks will be out of commission, as the tower house is to be moved from its present site to a point west of Hanna street and north of the main Pennsylvania tracks. A set of new street gates and set of new railway signal gates will be installed tomorrow and at the same time the old gates will be overhauled and repaired wherever necessary. The addition of a third main track is the occasion of all this.

Conductor R. E. McNally, of the Wabash yards, went to Chicago this morning to spend a day or two with his brother, Thomas McNally, known familarly in this city as "Bessie" McNally, who sold papers on the streets and at the depot for many years.

Yardmaster Dennis Hayes, of the Wabash, was successfully operated upon for an affection of the abdomen at the Peru hospital at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. He will be confined to the hospital two or three weeks, but will be relieved completely of the trouble which led to the operation.

Foreman George Stoll, of the Pennsylvania, is in receipt of a letter from his brother, Charles, who, with Frank Contant, is making a tour of the west. They were in Vancouvre when the letter was written. The travelers are Pennsylvania shopmen who have obtained a three months' leave of absence.

William M. Paul, master mechanic of the G. H. & H. road at Galveston, Texas, stopped off here a few hours today to see his old friends. He is en route to Atlantic City, to attend the master mechanics' convention. Mr. Paul was general foreman of the Wabash shops in this city several years ago.

Fifty-eight residents of Decatur who came here to attend the show yesterday over the Decatur interurban line had a misunderstanding as to the time of departure of the last car from the city and as a result made the trip home over the Grand Rapids and Indiana road. It was supposed the last car would leave the city at 12 o'clock, but it went much earlier and the fifty-eight Decatur people were not on it.

AUTOISTS ON LONG TRIP.

New York Riders on Trans-Continental Journey Pass Through City.

Two automobilists, driving an Oldsmobile, passed through Fort Wayne this morning in the course of their journey from New York to the Pacific coast. The riders left New York a week ago Monday, stopped last night at Bryan, O., and hurried through Fort Wayne today for South Bend. In their machine they carried a small tent and other camp equipment, as well as an elaborate repair outfit to provide against delays by accident.

BOY SPANKED; KILLS MOTHER.

Bassett, Neb., June 11.—Because his mother had spanked him, Calif McCoy, aged 11 years, shot and instantly killed her at their farm nine miles north of here. Fearing she was not dead, he fired a second bullet into her body. At first it was presumed the shooting was accidental, but today the child admitted his crime. He said his mother had punished him the day before, and he decided to be revenged. He secured a revolver from the house and when nobody else was near slipped up behind his mother and fired a shot into her head. She fell dead, but he fired the other shot into her body. Mrs. McCoy was a widow and lived with her five children on a homestead. The child is in the sheriff's custody.

AN OLD EDITOR

Found $2,000 Worth of Food.

The editor of a paper out in Oklahoma said: "Yes, it is true when I got hold of Grape-Nuts food, it was worth more than a $2,000 doctor bill to me, for it made me a well man. I have gained 25 pounds in weight, my strength has returned tenfold, my brain power has been given back to me, and that is an absolute essential, for I am an editor and have been for 35 years.

"My pen shall always be ready to speak a good word for this powerful nutritive food. I had of course often read the advertisement regarding Grape-Nuts, but never thought to apply the food to my own use, until, in my extremity and sickness the thought came to me that it might fit my case. The statements in regard to the food are absolutely correct, as I have proven in my own case. One very fortunate thing about the food is that while it is the most scientifically made and highly nourishing, concentrated food I have ever known, it has so delicious a taste that it wins and holds friends." "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Difficult Breathing

Short breath, fluttering, palpitation, sinking spells are symptoms of a weak heart, struggling to do its work. It must keep the blood in circulation to carry nourishment to make flesh, bone and muscle, and remove the worn-out particles. When it cannot do this, it must have help. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure gives strength to the heart nerves and muscles, and increases the heart action.

"I am glad to say that I am so much improved in health. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured me when several doctors failed. I think no other medicine could do for me what Heart Cure has done. My case was bad; bad as it could be at times. I had difficulty in getting my breath, my heart beat so fast at times that I thought it impossible to live without relief; the pain was very severe in my left side, and my nerves was all unstrung. I had almost given up all hope of being cured, and I am sure I would not, if I had not taken the Heart Cure. I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Miles' remedies to all who suffer with heart disease."

WOULD GET UNIFORM LAWS FOR STATE GUARDS

New National Militia Law Soon to Be in Effect—Suggestion Given.

Washington, June 11.—Acting Secretary of War Robert Shaw Oliver has addressed an identical letter to the governors of the states and territories having militia organizations, calling their attention to the fact that on January 21 next year, under the terms of the Dick Militia act, the militia organization must conform to that of the regular and volunteer armies of the United States. Therefore General Oliver suggests that it is the duty of the governor to take the neccessary steps to secure such conformity in organization by the date named.

Says General Oliver:

"Failure to meet this statutory requirement will result in debarring a state from the use of the allotment of the annual appropriation of $2,000,000 for the support of the militia."

Attention is called to the fact that the third section of the act imposes the condition that the number of its regularly enlisted organized and uniformed active militia shall be at least one hundred men for each senator and representative of the state.

Has Suggestion for Law.

With a view to placing on the statute books of the state an organized military law providing the necessary measure of conformity to the organization now in force in the regular army, or which may hereafter become effective therein, General Oliver suggests to the governors provisions for an enactment by the legislatures in brief as follows:

The definition of the duties of the adjutant general and his assistants and the quartermaster general and his assistants as laid down in article 1, war department circular October 8, 1903. Provision for the necessary general officers and for a staff made up of adjutant generals, inspector generals, judge advocates general, quartermasters, subsistence, medical, hospital corps, pay, engineers, ordnance and signal corps. The guard must be divided into divisions, brigades, regiments, etc., to conform to the regular army organization, reserving to the governor the power of reorganization to increase the efficiency and to make the companies and numbers of officers assigned to organizations correspond, to the regular army.

The new law will have a far reaching effect on the national guard of the country, for in very few states do the organizations at present correspond with those of the regular service. The most important change required will probably be in the great increase in the number of men in companies and regiments, for it is a fact that in many states so-called regiments of militia instead of being twelve hundred strong as they should be to meet modern service demands, they number scarcely more than a battalion or three hundred men and skeleton companies are everywhere in evidence.

RULES AGAINST OLD SOLDIERS.

Kansas Attorney General Upsets the Preference Law.

Topeka, Kas., June 11.—The man who appoints others to public office is the one who is to exercise discretion as to whether an old soldier or sailor is competent to fill the office or not, according to an opinion given out yesterday by F. S. Jackson, attorney general. The opinion has a bearing on the five cases filed in the supreme court to compel Mayor Cornell, of Kansas City, Kas., to appoint five old soldiers to positions. An effort has been made to compel Mayor Cornell to appoint these men, who were offered other positions. The opinion of the attorney general is said to make the soldiers' and sailors' preference law practically valueless, as the man who makes the appointment can say that the old soldier is not competent to handle the work.

SAY "JIM CROW" CAR WILL STAY.

Railroad Lawyers Assert Commerce Commission Will Favor It.

Washington, June 11.—"Jim Crow" cars will not be driven from the southern railroads. This prediction is made by railroad lawyers who have been closely following a test case before the interstate commerce commission, brought by a negro woman named Edwards, who appealed to the commission because she was forced to make an interstate trip in a compartment set aside for members of her race. The law says there shall not be "undue" discrimination between patrons of railroads. Lawyers say the discrimination is not "undue" but is caused by the comparatively small revenue derived from negro patrons, which makes it impossible to provide as ample accommodations for blacks as for whites.

FOUR RECEIVERS APPOINTED.

Big Steel Concern Down Is Shown to be In Difficulties.

New York, June 11.—Judge George C. Holt in the United States district court today appointed J. Van Vechten Olcott, representative in congress from New York city; William L. Ward, former representative from West Chester, and August Heckscher, a financier, temporary receivers for thirty days for Milliken Brothers, a large steel manufacturing concern. Four creditors filed an involuntary petition in bankruptcy against the corporation yesterday. The receivers qualified in a joint bond of $500,000.

Mr. Cromwell says the liabilities of the company are about $8,500,000, of which $3,000,000 is represented by first mortgage bonds. The assets, including the plant and real estate, is valued at $7,500,000.

RAILROADS FILE PETITION.

Kansas City, Mo., June 11.—In the United States district court here today, Frank Hagerman, representing the eighteen principal railroads in Missouri, filed an amended petition asking that the injunction previously granted restraining the state from enforcing the maximum freight rate law be extended to include the two-cent passenger rate law, which goes into effect next Friday. The court will probably pass on the application before Friday.

Cures Woman's Weakness.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "In Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea, suppressed or absent monthly periods, arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anaemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: "Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

HUGHES VETOES THE 2-CENT FARE LAW IN NEW YORK

Says It is Not a Square Deal for the Railroads of the State.

Albany, N. Y., June 11.—Governor Hughes today vetoed the bill instituting a flat passenger rate of two cents a mile on every railroad system in the state more than 150 miles long.

In the course of his veto message, the governor pointed out that "the passage of the bill was not preceded by legislative investigation or suitable inquiry under the authority of the state. Nor is the fixing of this rate predicted on reports or statistics officially collated which would permit a fair conclusion as to the justice of its operation with reference to the railroads within its purview."

One Wrong Does Not Justify Another.

The governor says also in part:

"Injustice on the part of railroad corporations toward the public does not justify injustice on the part of the state toward the railroad corporations. The action of the government should be fair and impartial and on this every citizen, whatever his interest is entitled to insist. The fact that those in control of railroad corporations have been guilty of grossly improper financiering and of illegal and injurious discriminations in charges points clearly to the necessity of effective state action, but does not require or warrant arbitrary reprisals.

"In dealing with these questions democracy must demonstrate its capacity to act on deliberation and to deal justly.

"It is of the greatest importance not only that railroads should be compelled to respect their public obligations, but also that they should be permitted to operate under conditions which will give a fair return for their service.

Investors and Employes in Same Boat

"Upon this depends not simply the security of investors, but the security of their employes and the protection of every form of industry and commerce through the maintenance and extension of necessary transportation facilities. Nothing could be more opposed to the interests of the community as a whole than to cripple the transportation corporations by arbitrary reduction of earnings.

"Considerable differences exist between the railroad corporations with respect to the territory they serve and the cost of service and it is manifest that what would be fair for one might be far from fair for another."

The governor refers to the public service commissions provided for in the law recently enacted and adds that "provision is made for inquiry into matters of freight rates and passenger fares and for the fixing of such rates as shall be found just and reasonable. If a passenger rate of two cents a mile is just and reasonable, it can be fixed. If it is not just and reasonable, it should not be fixed."

At the pretty home of Mrs. George H. Loesch this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, there was a large response to invitations which Mrs. Loesch had issued to meet her sister, Mrs. J. W. Palmer, of Chicago, and Mrs. A. C. Nill, of Lake George. Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Theodore Haberkorn, another sister received with Mrs. Loesch and Mrs. Nill presided in the dining-room. The rooms were decorated with marguerites and smilax and in excellent taste. Vases and jardinieres of the flowers stood where they were most effective and smilax entwined the chandeliers. In the dining-room the table was lighted by white candles in crystal holders, unshaded and the center of the table had marguerites for its decorative piece. A bit of color to the green and white was furnished by the strawberries which were served with ice cream in the refreshments. Mrs. Nill poured the coffee and was assisted in serving by Mrs. Will Hoham, Miss Nellie Henry and Miss Charlotte Haberkorn, and in the parlors were Miss Jessie Haberkorn, Mrs. W. D. Henderson, Mrs. Allen Vesey and Mrs. Fred Hoham.

High School Girls to Give Play.

The Gamma Delta Tau active members are planning for an entertainment which they will give in Standard hall on Thursday night. A little play has been in rehearsal for some time under the direction of one of the high school teachers, Miss Chamberlain. The name of the play is "A Fighting Chance; or, The Blue or the Gray," and as its name implies it is a romance of war days. The scene is laid in a girls' school and the cast includes the principal, one of her instructors and a number of students, a southern as well as northern girls and a quakeress. The parts will be taken by Misses Hazel Keplinger, Elizabeth Porter, Helen Peters, Ruth Evans, Mildred Saylor, Virginia Harper, Georgia Saylor, Helen Colerick, Fayma Bradshaw, Gladys Hughes and Gwendolyn Saylor. A number of the boys who will help as ushers or in handling scenery are Herbert Fee, James Porter, Ewing Bond, Budd VanSweringen and Maurice Lohman. The proceeds of the play will be kept towards defraying expenses at a convention of the sorority which is to meet in Fort Wayne in a few months.

Merrill—Kunkle.

The wedding of Miss Edyth Pearl Kunkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Kunkle, and Mr. Charles Wesley Merrill, of Toledo, was a beautiful affair of last evening at the Kunkle residence on East Wayne street. The marriage ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock by Rev. Samuel Wagenhals, of Trinity English Lutheran church. Just before the appointed hour the bridal party entered the living-room, where the marriage service was read. The bride, a young woman of much beauty, fair and tall, looked very lovely in her bridal array. She walked with her father and was preceded by her honor maid, Miss Dorothy Streifling, and Messrs. Herbert Haywood, of Columbus, O., and Sam Bostick, of this city, as ushers. Mr. Merrill was attended by Cecil Mackie, of Toledo. The bride wore a white silk mull made Grecian fashion and trimmed with princess lace with a rich adornment of duchess lace about the neck and shoulders. A veil of tulle fastened with bride's rosebuds and smilax, a shower bouquet of bride roses and a beautiful pendant of pearls and diamonds, the gift of the groom, were exquisite features of the bridal costume. Miss Streifling wore an imported embroidered mull, a crescent of pink rosebuds in her hair and carried pink roses. Preceding the wedding service a musical program was furnished by Miss Gill, contralto; Harry Ross, violinist, and Mrs. F. V. Cuibertson, accompanist. The "Melody of Love" was played during the ceremony and Mendelssohn's march at the close. Miss Gill sang "Bright Star of Love" before the bridal party entered. Immediately after congratulations were extended a supper was served to the guests on small tables. The bride and groom with a number of friends occupied a table in the dining-room. There, as all over the house, the decorations were roses. While white prevailed in the marriage room, pink offered a beautiful contrast in the dining-room. Pink appeared under the cluny mats on the table, in the color of the shades to the lights and was the color of the roses used in decorating. Receiving with the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. Kunkle, the groom's mother, Mrs. C. A. Merrill, of Toledo; his sister, Miss Edith Merrill, and Mrs. C. L. Griffith, of this city, a sister of the bride. Mrs. Kunkle wore a handsome gown of black peau de soie trimmed with lace medallions. Mrs. Merrill wore a gray satin with cream lace adornment and Miss Merrill was charming in a gown of pale pink pompadour silk. Mrs. Griffith wore a white batiste with valenciennes lace insertion. About one hundred guests were present at the wedding, including a number of relatives and friends from out of town. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Merrill left for an extended trip in the east and they will not be at home in Toledo until the first of October. The bride wore for going away a brown suit of chiffon cloth with hat of brown with plumes and white daisies for trimming. Mr. Merrill is a young lawyer of much ability in Toledo. Guests from away included besides Mr. Merrill's mother and sister, a brother, Ernest Merrill, of Beckley, W. Va.; George L. Shanks and F. L. Parmalee, of Toledo; Mrs. Herbert Wilkinson, of Niles, O.; Prof. and Mrs. Steffins, of Lima, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown, of Allegheny.

Smart Costumes for the Seashore.

BATHING SUIT OF GOLDEN BROWN WITH EMBROIDERED PANEL FROM JAMES MCCREERY & CO.

Princess Bathing Suits Worn With Bright Stockings.

Extremely effective are the new bathing suits and accessories that go to make up the sand or the seashore toilet of the smart girl.

Quite the newest fad is the embroidered bathing suit in taffeta silk, incongruous as it may sound, the heavy kind being used, just as one sees on jumpers and pongee gowns.

The illustration shows one of the newest models. It is in navy blue taffeta, in a firm, substantial grade made in two piece style, but with a princess effect. The skirt is laid in very deep pleats, kilted really, all around from a front panel of the goods pintucked horizontally, divided by a wide strip of the silk handsomely worked in navy blue. The waist is in blouse form and takes up the tucking and embroidery to the neck. The belt is of the silk and the sleeves are slashed, bell shaped.

Nothing could be handsomer than a suit of this kind, but prettier perhaps are those of soft louisine silk. These come in tiny checks of black and white and blue and white, made on similar lines to those seen in taffeta.

The princess style is, of course, represented. Pleats are responsible for the perfect fit about the waist line, the fulness springing from just below the hips, forming a full skirt.

Mohair, Sicilian and brilliantine are ever popular as materials for bathing suits, and the majority are really of this trio. In plain colors, black, navy blue and brown are to be had; then there are black and white, and blue and white checks, both broken and solid, dashes of black on white and vice versa, black backgrounds scattered with polka dots in white and also red, the latter most attractive, and navy blue mohairs woven with white dots.

Polka dot stockings will be worn with suits in a plain solid color, hose of one shade being more effective if the suit is either check, plaid or polka dot. High bathing shoes are the newest and come in black and in white with self lacings or in those of a contrasting color. Red lacings in white shoes are striking and pale blue threaded in black shoes are pretty.

Bathing caps surely were never so attractive before. A bright bit of rubber lined silk in the Stewart tartan was fashioned into the most fascinating cap, actually trimmed with a bow of the silk drawn through a bright gilt buckle and so arranged that the cap might be set upon the head at any angle found most becoming to the wearer. Above one type of face the effect will be prettier if it sets squarely in front, another will be more striking if the bow is changed to a coquettish angle on the left side.

Silks in bright solid colors are to be had as well as the plaids, and both come in the new trimmed shape and in Tam o' Shanter style. Though rubber lined such fancy caps often fall of their mission, and so, to thoroughly protect the hair from the water, the manufacturers have introduced a cap of pure rubber, called the "submarine," to be worn under the decorative fabric. The hair is tucked away snugly, and then the outer cap is donned with a view to becomingness rather than protection.

FIRST AN INCH; THEN AN ELL.

By O. W. Scott.

(From the Chicago Home Herald.)

There are nineteen golf-widows living in a suburban village, near a certain large city, in one of the middle states.

"Golf-widows? Who and what are they?" Well may one ask. I will explain.

There are nineteen men living in that same beautiful suburban town, who are very fond of playing golf, and they are the husbands of the nineteen golf-widows!

These men indulge in this sport all they can on week-days, and, for a time, they faithfully attended church on the Lord's day.

After a while it was proposed by one that they should go out on Sunday morning and play from 8:30 to 10 o'clock, and, returning at the latter hour, rejoin their families and attend morning service. It was so agreed. The following Sunday the men were promptly at the links at 8:30, and as promptly were at their homes at 10, to join their wives for service.

The second and third Sundays they were equally faithful. But, alas! that ended the compact. Not a pleasant Sunday after, but found them on the links until well on toward the noon hour. Sunday worship had come to be entirely ignored by these men.

Now, what of the results? When these husbands failed to join their wives for church service, the wives, chagrined at their husbands' absence, refused to appear at church alone and run the gauntlet of inquiry from their neighbors. Consequently, they also dropped church-going and became unhappy stay-at-homes.

Sunday golf-playing had simply robbed them of their husbands, and, in view of this fact, they had come to be called in the language of the community (and perforce as victims of the sport), "golf-widows."

This incident, which is vouched for, may illustrate the ease with which the Lord's day may come to be ignored. Things lawful and unlawful are allowed to encroach upon the sacred day. The first proposition for Sunday golf ("just an hour or two in the early morning") was the yielded "inch," which later became an "ell," and later still demanded the full measure.

This incident may also show the injury which the influence and example of a Sabbath-breaker may exert upon others. Who can estimate the serious moral damage that will come to those nineteen families because husband and father chose to violate God's command to consecrate God's day to rest and worship?

Would You Like to Improve Your Complexion?

How Many Women Are Bringing the Glow of Health to Their Faces With Home Treatment and at Small Cost.

The dominant feature of American women's complexions, taking them as a class, is a sallow, sometimes muddy, appearance of the skin, and may be quite generally attributed to imperfect digestions or sedentary lives. A fresh, clear skin is thoroughly dependent upon outdoor exercise, and perfect assimilation of the food. If work or conditions of life preclude these, it behooves every woman who would have a beautiful complexion to assist nature with other means.

The following wash has accomplished wonders with the complexions of thousands of women throughout this country. It is perfectly harmless to the tenderest skin and its beneficial effects can be seen immediately upon beginning its use.

Obtain at your drug store Rose Water, 2 ounces; Cologne Spirits, 1 ounce; Eppotone (skin food), 4 ounces. Put the Eppotone in a pint of hot water (not boiling), and after dissolved, strain and let cool. Then add the Rose Water and Cologne Spirits.

One of the best features about this toilet preparation is that it can be easily and conveniently prepared at home, thereby keeping a supply of it at all times upon the toilet table. The cost of it is so slight that it is within the reach of those of modest means, and the above quantities are sufficient to last several months. It is really remarkable how it tranforms homely faces into those fresh, charming complexions that are the admiration of all beholders.

CHURCH'S 200TH ANNIVERSARY.

Church of England's Foundation in Connecticut is Celebrated.

Stratford, Conn., June 12.—Commemoration of the 200th anniversary of the establishment in Connecticut of the Church of England was held today in Christ church here in the presence of one of the most distinguished bodies of churchmen that has ever been seen in the state. This was the first parish in the state and its history is closely interwoven with the story of the English church in all New England.

The book of common prayer was adopted by the parish in 1702 and the church edifice put up on the present site, of which in architecture the existent structure is a modern elaboration. The parish itself in those days was assisted by the venerable society for the propagation of the gospel in foreign parts.

A dissolution of relations with that body came with the severance of relations between the United States and Great Britain. The town and parish records show that a spiritual warfare existed in 1709, owing to the "dangers of the Episcopacy" as set forth by the congregationalists, and parishioners were not only fined for holding service, but were forbidden to vote or to hold office. Boycotts and heavy fines were means used to compel Christ church members to assist in support of the orthodox church and state government. For a time the missionaries sent to this parish had spiritual oversight in the many parishes established in Connecticut and Rhode Island and the influence of these men is also noted in the parishes later established in western New York. Today's celebration was divided into two parts, that of the morning being religious and of the afternoon historical in character.

Daily receipts of transatlantic freight received in the port of New York amount to $3,900 tons.

In the Bronx zoological park of New York city there are 3,680 animals of 1,500 different species.

CALF'S BRAINS.

Wash the brains thoroughly, rejecting all the small membranes. Place in a quart of cold water to which a tablespoonful of vinegar has been added, soak for twenty minutes or half an hour, then drain. Drop into boiling water and cook three minutes—no longer. Pour off the water and replace with cold water. After this preliminary treatment they are ready for use in any way desired. Put on the ice until ready to cook. To bread them, cut each portion of brain in half, season with salt and pepper, dip in egg, then cracker crumbs and fry in butter or olive oil until browned on each side. Take up carefully so as not to break them and serve with a tomato or brown butter sauce. Or brush over well with melted butter or oil, roll in seasoned bread crumbs, place each piece on a slice of bacon and bake in a hot oven for half an hour. Serve with sauce piquant. The blanched brains may also be cut in inch cubes, dipped in fritter batter and fried in hot, deep fat; be browned in butter and served on a bed of boiled spaghetti covered with tomato sauce and sprinkled with Parmesan cheese; or, cut in small pieces, put in scallop shells or ramekins, covered with tomato sauce, grated cheese and buttered crumbs and baked until slightly colored.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS ABOUT VEAL.

Veal should never be used before it is six weeks old. The best veal is neither white nor red, but pink, with considerable firm white fat around it. Veal should always be thoroughly cooked, and slowly, rather than rapidly. Half an hour to the pound is none too long for a large roast of veal. As it is an exceedingly dry meat, it requires plenty of larding or fat in some other form, and stock is better to cook it in than water. If veal has a sticky, flabby feeling, you may know it is too young for food.

A MUSICAL EVENT.

Ol' Bill's a solemn kind o' man; he jes' looks straight ahead,
An' has a serious way o' talkin' everything dat's said.
You won't find no one quieter, no matter whah you search.
He owns a house an' lot an' is a member of de church.
Dar's only one thing tempts him now an' then to step aside
F'um all his ordinary ways of dignity an' pride.
An' den de family gathers 'roun'; dey hears it mighty soon
Wen ol' Bill takes de banjo down an' stahts a little tune.

At fus' he strikes a lively one—he sorter shets his eyes,
Like he was lookin' far away acrost de distant skies
An' seein' 'way back yonder when he danced across de flo'
Wif folks dat was young folks wif him—dat mus' be long ago!
It soun's jes' like de robin an' de cricket an' de bee
A-joinin' in together in a contest foh to see
Which one of 'em kin make de loudes' music in de lan',
An' ol' Bill, he jes' sits an' plays, de leader of de ban'.

An' den he hums a little song; he hums it sof' an' low;
De banjo seems to answer back. It somehow 'pears to know
He's thinkin' 'bout de starlight an' de lonesome whippoorwill
Dat used to tell its troubles f'um de woods upon de hill.
An' den he smiles like some one was a-callin', far away—
Dar ain't nobody 'round here dat kin make him smile dat way.
It's like de honeysuckles sighin' sweetness to de moon
When ol' Bill takes de banjo down an' stahts a little tune.

He Took It Literally.

Billings ordered some wall paper.

The storo sent a consignment of paper, together with a paperhangar, to Billings' home.

Billings looked at the paper and found it was not the pattern he had ordered.

He told the paperhanger in a vigorous manner that he disapproved of the paper and then started for the store to have his order filled as given.

When he arrived home he found the wrong paper on the wall.

"Why did you hang this paper?" he asked the paperhanger.

"Because you told me to," was the response.

"Nothing of the sort!" cried Billings.

"I remember your exact words, sir," said the paperhanger.

"What were they?"

"You said, 'That isn't the paper I ordered, hang it all!'"

Fair Exchange.

The man who had been undergoing the tortures of a lightning shave on a Saturday night stepped from the chair and fished out a dime.

"But don't you think you ought to give me an extra nick?" hastened the slangy barber.

"I suppose so, bub," replied the patron as he rubbed his sliced chin. "I notice you gave me several nicks."—Detroit Tribune.

No Novice.

"Why," asked her mother, "do you think Mr. Sniggesley has had experience in lovemaking?"

"I noticed that he took pains whenever he tried to kiss me to arrange it so that we could not be seen by any one who might be peeping through the keyhole."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Sordid.

"Do you believe in art for art's sake?" asked the transcendentalist.

"No," answered the materialist; "the mention of art for art's sake usually means a request to work hard without getting paid for it."—Washington Star.

A Different Thing.

"Did I understand you to say that all rum selling has been stopped in your town?"

"Not at all. I merely said it was strictly prohibited."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Eph's Condition.

Ephra'm Brown an' me are neighbors—
been so more than forty year;
But of late he's got to actin' an' a-talkin'
mighty queer,
For whene'er I chance tew meet him,
Josh'y Jones," he sez, sez he,
"Tell me, if yew kin, what wuz I, an'
what be I goin' tew be?"

When he sez tew me, "What wuz I?" in that holler sort o' way,
I don't make no bones o' leavin' with a kind o' short "Good day."
When he sez, "What will I be, Josh?"
with that daft look in his eye,
I jest bolt out mighty sudden without mentionin' "Goodby."

He's a-sittin' wuss an' wusser, with that wild look in his face;
An' he even asks them questions to the critters on the place.
"Wuz I once a Cochin China or a bark-in' dog?" sez he.
"If I wuzzent me, who wuz I, an' who be I goin' tew be?"

I can't make no speckliation when he puts
the thing that way,
But I'm wishin' he would ask me, "Josh,
what be I right tewday?"
I could anawer him so sudden that I
low 'twould make him sick—
I'd say, "Eph, in my opeenyon, yew're a ravin' loonytick."

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., June 12.—Covering by shorts caused firmness in the wheat market today despite lower cables and continued favorable weather in this country and Canada for the growing grain. Trading was not of large volume owing to a comparative scarcity of offerings. September opened ¾c lower to ¼c higher at 95¾c to 96c and sold at 96¼c. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 203 cars.

Selling by longs and for short account caused a severe break during the last half of the session. Heavy lines of wheat were thrown on the market by local traders forcing the price of September down more than 3c, from the high point of the day. The close was weak. September closed at 92⅞@93c which was 2¾@2⅞c below the final quotations of yesterday.

The corn market was firm because of a good demand from cash houses. September opened unchanged to ¼c lower at 53c to 52⅛c and sold up to 53⅜c. Local receipts were 360 cars with 123 of contract grade.

The close was easy with September corn down ⅛@¼c at 52⅞@53c.

Oats were firm, but trading was light. September opened a shade lower to ¼@⅜c higher at 35⅝c to 36c and for a time held within this range.

Provisions were weak with prices sharply lower, owing to liberal profit taking by leading longs. Large receipts of hogs at western packing centers contributed to the weakness. September pork was off 12½c to 35c at $15.80 to $16.02½. Lard was down 5@7½c to 17½@20c at $8.75 to $8.87½. Ribs were 5c to 17½c lower at $8.60@9.72½.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, June 12.—Opening prices of stocks made small advances over last night on a meager volume of business. Canadian Pacific rose nearly a point and Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Reading and Anaconda large fractions.

Stocks were bought sparingly after the opening and a few went higher, but the list was soon forced to yield under the pressure against Reading, Union Pacific, United States Steel and Smelting.

Subsequently the tone improved for a time but the demand became notably less as prices hardened. Reading fell off 1¾ points and Delaware & Hudson 1½. Union Pacific reacted from 134¼ to 133⅛. Detroit Southern Trust receipts gained 2 and United Railway Investment preferred 3 points.

Reading rallied from the attack on it and Union Pacific became strong at a rise of 1¼ and Northern Pacific gained 1⅝. There were declines in Northwestern and St. Louis & San Francisco second preferred of 1 point and in Pressed Steel Car preferred 2. Bonds were irregular.

The course of prices became downward, Union Pacific losing most of its rise and Reading selling below 103. Active stocks were generally sluggish.

An abrupt fall of 4⅛ points in Rock Island preferred caused renewed weakness in the general list and some of the favorites sold at the low figures of the day.

The market closed dull and heavy. Canadian Pacific made a sudden jump of 3¼ points and Consolidated Gas advanced to 1 over last night. The general list was unresponsive and the extreme dullness was unrelieved. American Ice fell 3 points and United States Rubber 1.

Leavenworth, Kan., June 12.—The proceedings brought by H. H. Tucker, jr., to remove the Uncle Sam Oil company from bankruptcy, was resumed in the United States district court here today.

The list of witnesses called included the names of Judge John C. Pollock, one of the federal judges whose integrity Tucker assailed in his petition last week; Harry J. Bon, of Topeka, United States district attorney; D. W. Mulvane, republican national committeeman for Kansas, and Judge O. M. Spencer, of St. Joseph, general counsel of the Burlington railway.
